Will of Catharine H. Bacon

I Catharine H. Bacon being of sound mind do on this 18th day of December 1868 make this my last will and testament I want my body to be buried beside my parents and a tombstone not to exceed in value those which mark their graves to mark mine and a similar one to be placed at the grave of my late husband William S. Bacon unless that has been placed before my death.

My property is to be sold and all my debts paid. The balance is to be divided equally among my sisters and invested in real estate or good securities for their benefit. My sister Josephine Risley is to have just double what each one of my other sisters receive. Caroline Stockmans portion is to be held in trust for her by Beulah C. Hirst or by some one else whom she shall appoint when she is unable to serve Charles S. Stockman her husband is to have no interest in it or control over it in case Caroline dies before her children attain their majority the property is to be held for their benefit and paid them
