Thomas Brady and Charles L. Burkard, executor, in the within testament named, being duly sworn, did depose and say, that the annexed instrument contains the true last will and testament of Thomas Daly, the testator therein named so far as they know; and as they verily believe that they will well and truly perform the same, by paying first the debts of the said deceased, and then the legacies in the said testament specified, so far as the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased can thereto extend; and that they will make and exhibit into the Surrogate office of the county of Atlantic, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, that have or shall come to their knowledge or possession, or to the possession of any other person or persons, for their use, and render a just and true account when therunto lawfully required.
