A. G. Stewart

Atlantic County, ss.

Charles R. Lovell, Sole Executor in the within testament named, being duly sworn, did depose and say, that the annexed instrument contains the true last will and testament of Sarah R. Lovell, the testatrix therein named, so far as he knows and as he verily believes, that he will well and truly perform the same, by paying first the debts of the said deceased and then the legacies in the said testament specified, so far as the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, can thereto extend, and that he will make and Exhibit into the surrogate's office of the County of Atlantic, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, that have or shall come to his knowledge or possession, or to the possession of any other person or persons, for his use and under a just and true account, when thereto lawfully required.

In the matter of the alleged will of Sarah R. Lovell, deceased

Order for Probate

Application having been made by Charles R. Lovell, for probate of the last will of Sarah R. Lovell, deceased, and letters testamentary thereon, and the surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken proof, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the will produced, the validity of its Execution, and the competency of the testatrix, and the probate of said will not having been contested, and it appearing that the testatrix died more than ten days ago, it is, on this third day of March A.D. 1888, adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is the last will and testament of Sarah R. Lovell, deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate; and it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued thereon to Charles R. Lovell, the Executor named in said will, who may qualify thereunder.

J. S. Risley
Surrogate of Atlantic County.
