Know all men by these presents, that I Rebecca E. Fowler a resident of Atlantic City, State of New Jersey, although confined to my bed with sickness yet of a good strong mind, and reasoning power, and fully conscious of what I am doing, do make this Codicil in addition to my will, desiring and ordering my Executors who are named in my will, to see that the provision and bequest made in this Codicil are carefully and accurately complied with as soon after my death as is convenient for them, without injury to my Estate.

Codicil bequest "To wit," In article second, of my will as much as relates to proceeds and distributions of monies received from the sale or sales of my three Properties (R. E.) known as Nos. 2304, 2306 and 2308 Atlantic Avenue, Atlantic City N. J. I desire to charge only by making one bequest or gift, before the remaining proceeds be distributed to my two Brothers already named pro-rata, from this income, I give, will, devise and bequeath to Mrs Anna J. Parsel who has so kindly nursed and taken such good care of me in this my last sickness the sum of one thousand dollars, ($1000) in cash, this bequest is no way to change or alter any former bequest made in my will, but to be considered as an additional to other bequests all ready made.
