

Atlantic City,
May 12, 1896.

In the name of God Should my beloved husband Jacob Scherer through illness or any unforeseen misfortune get into circumstances, or in want, to sell the house No 2427 Atlantic Ave., then it is my firm will, being of sound mind, that he has unlimited power, to do what he thinks best, and the beforemade testament shall be null and void.

Bertha Scherer.

Jacob Scherer Executor of the within named Bertha Scherer deceased, being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that the within writing contains the true last Will and Testament and Codicil thereto of Bertha Scherer therein named, deceased, so far as he knows and as he verily believes that he will well and truly perform the same, by paying, first the debts of said deceased, and then the legacies in the said Testament specified, so far as the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased can thereunto extend, and that he will make and exhibit into the Surrogate's Office of the County of Atlantic, at or before the expiration of three calendar months, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels, Rights and credits of the said deceased, that have or shall come to his knowledge or possession, or to the possession of any other person or persons for his use, and render a just and true account when thereunto lawfully required.
