Christopher L. English sole executor named in the last will and testament of the within named Ann W. English deceased, being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that the within writing contains the true last will and testament of Ann W. English therein named, deceased, so far as he knows and as he verily believes that he will well and truly perform the same, by paying, first the debts of said deceased, and then the legacies in the said testament, so far as the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased can thereto extend, and that he will make and exhibit into the Surrogate's Office of the County of Atlantic, at or before the expiration of three calendar months, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased, that have or shall come to his knowledge or possession, unto the possession of any other person or persons, for his use, and render a just and true account whereunto lawfully required.

Swear and subscribed at May Lauding, County and State aforesaid
May twelfth A.D. 1905 before me. Christopher L. English.

J. S. Risley, Surrogate.

Atlantic County Surrogate's Office.

In the matter of the probate
of the alleged Will of Order for Probate.
Ann W. English, deceased.

Application having been made by Christopher L. English for probate of the last will of Ann W. English, deceased, and Letters Testamentary thereon, and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken proof, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the will produced, the validity of its execution and the competency of the testatrix and the probate of said will not having been contested and it appearing that the testatrix died more than ten days ago, it is, on this twelfth day of May A.D. 1905 adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is the last will and testament of Ann W. English deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate; and it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued thereon to Christopher L. English the Executor.

named in said will, who may qualify thereunder.
