

the term of her natural life.

It is my will that after my daughter's death my entire estate, real, personal and mixed shall be equally divided among my grand-children, share and share alike when they reach the age of twenty-one years, provided my daughter's death occurs before they reach this age. In any event the estate is not to be divided until after the death of my said daughter. In the event of the death of any of my grand-children, leaving issue, then I direct that the portion due such deceased grand-child or children shall be equally divided among the issue of such deceased grand-child or children. Should any grand-child or grand-children die without issue then the portion due such deceased grand-child or grand-children shall be equally divided among the survivor or survivors of my grand-children share and share alike.

Lastly, I nominate and appoint my daughter Margaret R. Baldeman and the Pennsylvania Company for Insurances on Lives and Granting Annuities, 517 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia executors of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have herewith set my hand and seal this second day of December AD. 1897.

John D. Ruoff, (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by John D. Ruoff, the testator above named as and for his last will and Testament in the presence of us, who in his presence, at his request and in the presence of each other have herewith set our names as witnesses.
