

Agnes H. Wall, and to my beloved sister Elizabeth Hogan, their and each of their heirs and assigns forever, all my property real, personal and mixed, of what nature and kindsoever, and wheresoever the same shall be at the time of my death, to be divided between them share and share alike.

Third: For the reasons stated in the sixth paragraph of my husband's last will and testament duly filed in the office of the Register of Wills for and for the County of Philadelphia, I have purposely refrained from giving any portion of my estate to my beloved grandson, Nicholas Wall.

Fourth I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said daughter Agnes H. Wall, and my said sister, Elizabeth Hogan, executrices of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I, Mary Hogan Wall, the testatrix, have to this my last will and testament, written on both sides of one sheet of paper, set my hand and seal, this second day of July, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and ninety six.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the above named, Mary Hogan Wall, as and for her last will and testament, in the presence of us, who have herein to subscribed our names, at her request as witnesses thereto in the presence of the said testatrix and of each other.
