Alfred J. Keegan of East Rockaway, Long Island New York being duly sworn as a witness in the above entitled matter, and examined on behalf of the applicant to prove said will says I was acquainted with Lemuel Eldridge now deceased; I knew the above named decedent for about five years before his death. The subscription of the name of said decedent to the instrument now shown to me and offered for probate as his last will and testament, and bearing date the twelfth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety was made by the decedent at Long Beach, Long Island New York on the twelfth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety in the presence of myself and Charles E. Hitchcock and Andrew J. Tuttle the other subscribing witness the said decedent declared the said instrument so subscribed by him to be his last will and testament; and I thereupon signed my name as a witness at the end of said instrument at the request of said decedent, and in his presence. The said decedent at the time of so
