John Schmidt, deceased.

It appearing from the petition of William Champion, filed herein, that John Schmidt, late of the Borough of Pleasantville, in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, died on the Ninth day of January, and executed a paper writing purporting to be his to appoint an Executor thereof; and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances, taken proof, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the will produced, the validity of its execution, and the competency of the will having been filed and the said William Champion being in my judgment a fit person to administer the estate of the said testator: It is on this Sixth day of February, 1904, adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is the last will and testament of the said John Schmidt, deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate, and it is ordered that Letters of Administration with the will annexed be issued thereon to the said William Champion upon the giving by him of a bond, as required by law.
