

The name of said decedent to the instrument now shown to me and offered for probate as his last will and testament, and bearing date the 16th day of October in the year one thousand nine hundred and two was made by the decedent at the city of New York, on the 16th day of October in the year one thousand nine hundred and two, in the presence of myself and John F. Vrede the other subscribing witness. At the time of such subscription the said decedent declared the said instrument so subscribed by him to be his last will and testament; and I thereupon signed my name as a witness at the end of said instrument, at the request of said decedent, and in his presence. The said decedent at the time of so executing said instrument, was upwards of the age of twenty-one years, and in my opinion of sound mind, memory and understanding, not under any restraint or in any respect incompetent to make a will. I also saw said John F. Vrede the other subscribing witness, sign his name as witness at the end of said will, and know that he did so at the request and in the presence of said decedent.
