Should my executors at any time deem it advisable and for the best interest of my estate to make partition of the same they may upon the written request of all parties interested proceed to do so. I nominate and appoint my sons, William Henry and Eugene L. Dorey as Executors of this my last will and testament and Trustees for the within named Alice Parrhall and in the event of the death of either or both of them then my son Beampton C. Dorey shall succeed him or them and I further direct that no security shall be required of them or either of them for the faithful performance of their duties either as executors or trustees under this my last will and testament. In testimony whereof I the said Daniel Dorey have to this my last will and testament contained
