Fanny P. Cheyney, executrix of the within named Waldron J. Cheyney deceased, being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that the within writing contains the true last will and testament of Waldron J. Cheyney therein named, deceased, so far as she knows and as she verily believes; that she will well and truly perform the same by paying first the debts of the said deceased and then the legacies in the said testament specified, so far as the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased can thereunto extend, and that she will make and exhibit into the surrogate's office of the County of Atlantic, at or before the expiration of three calendar months, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said decedent that have or shall come to her knowledge or possession, or to the possession of any other person or persons for her use, and render a just and true account when thereunto lawfully required; and also diligently and faithfully regard and well and truly comply with the provisions of the act relating to collateral inheritance.

Atlantic County Surrogate's Court.

In the matter of the probate of the last will and testament of Waldron J. Cheyney, deceased.

Order For Probate

Application having been made to me by Fanny P.
Cheyney the executrix named in the last will and testament of Waldron J. Cheyney, late of Aberdeen in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, deceased, for probate of the said will and testament and letters testamentary thereon, and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken the proofs, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the said will, produced, the validity of its execution, and the competency of the testator, and the probate of the said will not being contested and it appearing that the testator died more than ten days ago: to wit: February 24, 1906. It is on this nine teenth day of March A.D. 1906 adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is established as the last will and testament of Waldron J. Cheyney, deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate; and it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued thereon to Fanny P.
Cheyney, the executrix named in the said will who may qualify thereunder.
