James Simpson Executor of the within named Agnes Frances Simpson deceased, being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that the within writing contains the true last will and testament of Agnes Frances Simpson therein named, deceased, so far as he knows and as he verily believes, that he will well and truly perform the same by paying first the debts of the said deceased and then the legacies in the said testament specified, so far as the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased can thereunto extend, and that he will make and exhibit into the Surrogate's office of the County of Atlantic, at or before the expiration of three calendar months, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said decedent that have or shall come to his knowledge or possession, or to the possession of any other person or persons for his use; and render a just and true account when thereunto lawfully required; and also diligently and faithfully regard and well and truly comply with the provisions of the act relating to collateral inheritance.

Sworn and subscribed at Atlantic City, County and State aforesaid, the 15th day of May, A.D. 1907 before me
Emanuel B. Shaver,
Surrogate.

James Simpson

Atlantic County Surrogate's Court.

In the Matter of the probate of the last will and testament of Agnes Frances Simpson deceased.

Order For Probate.

Application having been made to me by James Simpson the executor named in the last will and testament of Agnes Frances Simpson, late of Atlantic City in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, deceased, for probate of the said will and testament and letters testamentary thereon, and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken the proofs and being satisfied of the genuineness of the said will, proved, the validity of its execution, and the competency of the testatrix, and the probate of the said will not being contested and it appearing that the testatrix died more than ten days ago: to-wit: April 21-1907.

It is on this 15th day of May A.D. 1907 adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is established as the last will and testament of Agnes Frances Simpson deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate; and it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued thereon to James Simpson the executor named in the said will who may qualify thereunder.

Emanuel B. Shaver,
Surrogate
