 E. P. Hubbard, one of the witnesses to the within will, being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that he saw the testator therein named, sign and seal the same, and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the within writing to be his last will and testament, and that at the time of the doing thereof, the said testator was of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, so far as he knows and as he verily believes, and that E. C. Bander the other subscribing witness was present at the same time and signed his name as witness to the said will together with this deponent in the presence of the said testator and in the presence of each other, all being present at the same time.

 Wilhelmina M. Loder, Executrix of the within named William S. Loder, deceased, being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that the within writing contains the true last will and testament of William S. Loder therein named, deceased, so far as she knows, and as she verily believes, that she will well and truly perform the same by paying first the debts of the said deceased, and then the legacies in the said testament specified, so far as the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased can thereunto extend, and that she will make and exhibit into the Surrogate's office of the County of Atlantic, at or before the expiration of three calendar months, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said decedent that have or shall come to her knowledge or possession, or to the possession of any other person or persons for her use, and render a just and true account when thereunto lawfully required, and also diligently and faithfully regard and well and truly comply with the provisions of the act relating to collateral inheritance.

 Order For Probate.

Wilhelmina M. Loder, executrix of the will of William S. Loder, deceased, having petitioned the Surrogate of Atlantic County for the probating of the said will, and Mary S. Robb and Effie C. Medalee, two of the next of kin of William S.
 Loder, deceased, having filed in the office of the said Surrogate a caveat against the probating of the said will, and the court having taken testimony and heard the allegations of the parties and being satisfied that the instrument in writing, offered by proponents for probate as and for the last will of William S. Loder, deceased, was duly executed by the said William S. Loder, deceased, as and for his last will and testament, and that the said William S. Loder, deceased, at the time of executing the said instrument was in all respects competent to execute the same and was not under any restraint or undue influence, and the court having advised proctors for the proponents and caveators that it would sign an order admitting the said will to probate, and Thompson & Cole, Proctors for the proponents, having stated to the court that they desired to withdraw the application for the probating of the said will, and William M. Beveridge, proctor for caveators, having objected to said withdrawal, and the said proctor for the said proponents having thereupon refused to enter an order for the probating of the said will, in accordance with the determination of the said court, and the said proctor for the caveators having given due and legal notice of a motion, returnable before the court on the third day of August, nineteen hundred and seven, to admit the will of the said William S. Loder, deceased, to probate on the court's motion, on the caveator's motion or on the motion of the proponents, and the court being of the opinion that it had no power to enter the order on its own motion or on the motion of proctor for the proponents, but that it did have authority to enter it on the motion of
