

A codicil to the last will and testament of Jane B. Shain, of Atlantic City, New Jersey.

I, Jane B. Shain, of Atlantic City, New Jersey, do make, publish and declare the following as a codicil to my last will and testament: Item: Since the making of my last will and testament, Robert Caldwell to whom I gave and bequeathed in said will, the sum of four thousand dollars, has departed this life.

There are reasons why the gift of said four thousand dollars over to James Caldwell in the event of the death of Robert Caldwell, should become a part of my residuary estate, and I do, therefore, and hereby alter, modify and change said will to the following effect only, to wit:

I have said direct that the sum of four thousand dollars shall in and by said will, as given and bequeathed to Robert Caldwell, be and become a part of my residuary estate.

Witness my hand and seal this third day of March, nineteen hundred and six.

Jane B. Shain

signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Jane B. Shain, as and for a codicil to her last will and testament, in our presence, who, at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses.

A codicil to the last will and testament of Jane B. Shain:

Item: Since the making and execution of my last will, with the codicil thereto, reasons have arisen which make it wise for me to strike the name of Dr. George W. Crosby, as an Executor and I do therefore hereby modify and alter said will to the extent of striking said name and nominating and appointing Rowland H. Bewley and Clarence E. Cole as executors of my will. Witness my hand and seal this 21st day of January A.D. 1908.

Jane B. Shain
