 John Willits Cordery, & Hannah E. Babcock, Executors of the within named Lucy A. Cordery deceased, being duly sworn according to law did depose and say that the within writing contains the true last will and testament of Lucy A. Cordery therein named, deceased, so far as they know, and as they verily believe; that they will well and truly perform the same by paying first the debts of the said deceased, and then the bequest in the said testament specified, so far as the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased can thereunto extend, and that they will make and exhibit in the Surrogate's office of the County of Atlantic, at or before the expiration of three calendar months a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased that have or shall come to their knowledge or possession

 Application having been made to me by John Willits Cordery and Hannah E. Babcock the executors named in the last will and testament of Lucy Ann Cordery, late of Absecon City in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, deceased for Probate of the said will and testament and letters testamentary thereon, and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken the proofs, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the said will, produced the validity of its execution, and the competency of the testatrix and that Probate of the said will not being contested and it appearing that the testatrix died more than ten days ago: February 1, 1911; It is on this 1st day of February A. D. 1911, adjudged that the instrument offered for Probate in this matter is established as the last will and testament of Lucy Ann Cordery deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to Probate, and it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued thereon to John Willits Cordery and Hannah E.
