In the name of God, Amen.

I, Jonathan H. Smith of Richland, Atlantic County, New Jersey, being of sound and disposing mind, memory, and understanding, do make, publish, and declare this my last Will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say:

First: I do hereby will and direct, that all my just debts and funeral expenses be speedily paid by my executrix hereafter named, and a suitable monument erected to my memory in their discretion.

Second: To my beloved and trusted wife Mary E. Smith, I give, devise and bequeath, all my property and estate whatsoever and wheresoever, Real, Personal, or mixed, in possession, action, or expectancy, absolutely, to have and to hold, to her her heirs and assigns forever, if she survive me to take.

Third: If my said wife Mary E. Smith predecease me, and this will remain unexecuted by me, then I direct and will that all my then surviving children and the descendants, per stripes of any then deceased one, shall succeed the said Mary E. Smith, and take all my estate aforesaid, lease and share alike.

Fourth: I constitute and appoint my said wife Mary E. Fifth: If the contingency provided for in the third clause hereof should occur, then I direct that my son in law Charles DuBois shall act as executor and shall settle my estate in manner and form provided by law.

In witness whereof, I have hereto set my hand this twenty seventh day of November A.D. Nineteen
