Wesley P. Smith, Executor of the within named George W. Smith deceased, being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that the within writing contains the true last will and testament of George W. Smith therein named, deceased, so far as he knows and as he verily believes, that he will well and truly perform the same, by paying first the debts of the said deceased, and then the legacies in the said testament specified, so far as the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased can thereunto extend, and that he will make and exhibit in the Surrogate's office of the County of Atlantic, at or before the expiration of three calendar months, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased that have or shall come to his knowledge or possession, or to the possession of any other person or persons for his use; and render a just and true account upon thereunto lawfully required; and also diligently and faithfully regard and well and truly comply with the provisions of the Acts relating to collateral inheritance.

In the Matter of the Probate of the Last }
Will and Testament of George W. Smith, } Order For Probate deceased.

Application having been made to me by Wesley P. Smith, the executor named in the last will and testament of George W. Smith late of Greenwood in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey deceased, for probate of the said will and testament and letters testamentary thereon and the surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken the proofs, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the said will, produced, the validity of its execution, and the competency of the testator, and the probate of the said will not being contested and it appearing that the testator died more than ten days ago: January 25, 1913.

It is on this 15th day of February A.D. 1913, adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is established as the last will and testament of George W. Smith deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate; and it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued thereon to Wesley P. Smith the executor named in the said will who may qualify thereunder.

Emanuel L. Shaner,
Surrogate.
By George J. Vetter
Deputy Surrogate.
