

District of Columbia, ss. W. W. Mayberry, one of the witnesses to the within will dated Apr. 6, 1912, being duly sworn according to law deposes and says, that he saw the testator therein named, sign and seal the same, and heard him publicly pronounce and declare the within writing to be his last will and testament and that at the time of the doing thereof, the said testator was of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, so far as he knows and as he verily believes and that Louis P. Stroh the other subscribing witness was present at the same time and signed his name as witness to the said will, together with this deponent in the presence of the said testator, and at his request and in the presence of each other, all being present at the same time.

Sworn and subscribed at Washington, D.C. the 31st day of March A.D. 1913 } W. W. Mayberry, before me.

Thos. H. Anderson, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia

Thomas H. Anderson, Associate Justice of the District of Columbia, do hereby certify in the manner in which such acts are usually authenticated by me, that W. W. Mayberry the person in the within commission named, personally appeared before me at Washington, in the District of Columbia, U.S.A. this 31st day of March, 1913 and was duly sworn by me to the truth of the above deposition, by him signed.

Witness my hand and seal of office, this 31st day of March 1913 at Washington aforesaid.

Thos. H. Anderson, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia

John R. Young, Clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, do hereby certify that the Honorable Thomas H. Anderson, whose genuine signature is subscribed to the annexed writing, was at the time of signing the same Associate Justice of said Court, duly commissioned and qualified.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto subscribe my name and affix the seal of the said Court at the City of Washington, the 31st day of March, A.D. 1913.

John R. Young, Clerk

Atlantic County Orphan's Court
In the matter of the Probate of the last will and testament of Alongo Dare, deceased. } Order for Probate

Not appearing from the petition of Linda M. Parker, filed herein, that Alongo Dare, late of the City of Atlantic City in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, died on or about the nineteenth day of December, 1912 and more than ten days ago, having first duly made and executed a paper writing purporting to be her last will and testament, in and by which he failed to appoint any executor thereof and the appropriate having inquired into the circumstances, taken proof and being satisfied of the genuineness of the will produced, the validity of its execution and the competency of the testator, and no objection against the probate of said will having been filed and the said Linda M. Parker being in my judgment a fit person to administer the estate of the said testator.

I do on this twenty-first day of April, 1913 adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is the last will and testament of the said Alongo Dare, deceased and the same is hereby admitted to probate and it is ordered that letters of administration with the will, annexed be issued thereon to the said Linda M. Parker upon the giving by her of a bond as required by law.

Emmanuel B. Shaner, Surrogate

Atlantic County Surrogate's Office
State of New Jersey, ss. County of Atlantic

If All to Whom these Presents shall Come, Greeting: Whereas Alongo Dare, late of the County of Atlantic in the State of New Jersey, departed this life, having made and executed a last will and testament, which has been duly proved according to law before the Surrogate of the County of Atlantic; and

Whereas the said testator failed to appoint any executor thereof, therefore I, Emmanuel B. Shaner, Surrogate of the County of Atlantic do hereby appoint Linda M. Parker, Administratrix of all and singular the goods, chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased, who is duly authorized to administer the same according to said will.

And I do further certify the annexed to be a true copy of the last will and testament of the said Alongo Dare, deceased, as the same remains of record in my said office.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office, this twenty-first day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen. Emmanuel B. Shaner, Surrogate
