

TENTH: I give and bequeath to the Fidelity Trust Company, aforesaid, one bond of the Public Service Corporation of New Jersey, of the par value of One Thousand Dollars, the income from which to be paid to my sister-in-law, Lottie Seyfert, until she attains the age of sixty years, at which time said bond shall be delivered to her.

-2-

ELEVENTH: Should any of the persons named in paragraphs "Third", "Fourth", "Fifth", "Sixth", "Seventh", "Eighth", "Ninth" and "Tenth" of this my will, die before the time herein limited for the payment or transfer to him or her of the securities so held for him or her, then upon the death of such person to transfer and deliver said securities to his or her personal representative.

TWELFTH: I give and bequeath (a) my gold watch and chain to my grand-son, Robert Henry Smith, the same to be delivered to him when he attains the age of sixteen years; and (b) to my daughter, Ruth Elizabeth Smith, my gold locket.

THIRTEENTH: All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, wheresoever situate and of whatsoever constituted, I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Hattie D. Smith, until her death or remarriage, whichever event shall first occur; and until her death or remarriage she to have the custody thereof.

FOURTEENTH: Should my said wife not remarry, then upon her death, I give, devise and bequeath the remainder of my estate to my daughter, Ruth Elizabeth Smith, absolutely.

FIFTEENTH: Should my said wife remarry then upon her remarriage, I give from the residue of my estate to my said daughter, Ruth Elizabeth Smith, the sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars and the balance thereof to my children, share and share alike.

SIXTEENTH: I make, constitute and appoint Fidelity Trust Company, aforesaid, executor of this my last will and testament, and give to it full power and authority to sell and dispose of any and all real estate of which I may die seized, either at public or private sale, at such times and upon such terms as to it may seem for the best interest of my estate, and to make good and sufficient conveyances in the law therefor; and further I direct that no bond shall be required of it for the faithful administration of my estate in any jurisdiction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this Twenty-sixth day of March, Nineteen Hundred and Twenty.

Henry Smith (L. S.)

The foregoing Will consisting of four typewritten sheets, including this sheet, each sheet identified by the signature of the testator on the margin thereof, was signed, sealed, published and declared by the said testator as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us who were present at the same time, and who, thereupon, at the testator's request, in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.
