

arrived at age twenty one; paying my son George, one half of their estate, reserving and holding the other half until my son Robert B. Stratton, arrives at twenty one years of age, paying him the full amount remaining of my estate. Should one not survive the other, to the age of twenty one years, then all to the survivor, of the other.

I nominate, constitute and appoint my friends, William O. Teasenfitz and Samuel J. Clark, of Pleasantville and Winslow Township New Jersey, executors of this my last Will and Testament

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this twenty eighth day of November-1921

George P. Stratton (Seal)

Signed, Sealed, Published and Declared, by the above named George P. Stratton to be his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us; who were present at the same time, and at the request of the testator have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses, in the presence of the testator and of each other.

Charles Beebe Arthur S. Rennington

ATLANTIC COUNTY SURROGATE'S COURT.

In the matter of the Probate of the alleged Will of George P. Stratton, deceased. ON PETITION FOR PROBATE. DEPOSITION OF SUBSCRIBING WITNESS.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, COUNTY OF ATLANTIC.

Charles Beebe, one of the witnesses to the annexed writing, dated November 28, 1921, purporting to be the last will and testament of George P. Stratton, deceased, being duly sworn according to law upon his oath deposes and says that he saw George P. Stratton, the said testator sign and seal the said annexed writing and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the same to be his last will and testament.

Deponent further says that at the time of the doing thereof the said testator was over the age of twenty-one years, of sound and disposing mind and memory and not under any restraint, so far as deponent knows and as he verily believes; and that Arthur S. Rennington, the other subscribing witness to the said will was present at the same time with deponent when the said will was signed by the said testator and by him published and declared as and for his last will and testament, as aforesaid, and that the said Arthur S. Rennington and deponent subscribed their names to said will as witnesses at the request of and in the presence of the said testator and in the presence of each other.

Subscribed and sworn to this 12th day of December, 1921, at Atlantic City, N.J., before me, Charles Beebe, Albert C. Abbott, Surrogate.

ATLANTIC COUNTY SURROGATE'S COURT.

In the matter of the estate of George P. Stratton, deceased. Oath of Executors. State of New Jersey, County of Atlantic.

William O. Teasenfitz and Samuel J. Clark, executors of the within named George P. Stratton, deceased, being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say, that the within writing contains the true last will and testament of George P. Stratton, therein named, deceased, so far as they know and as they verily believe; that they will well and truly perform the same by paying first the debts of the said deceased and then the legacies in the said testament specified, so far as the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased can thereunto extend, and that they will make and exhibit in the Surrogate's office of the County of Atlantic, at or before the expiration of three calendar months, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said decedent, that have or shall come to their knowledge or possession, or to the possession of any other person or persons for their use; and render a just and true account when thereunto lawfully required; and also diligently and faithfully regard and well and truly comply with the provisions of the act relating to collateral inheritances.

Sworn and subscribed at Atlantic City, County and State aforesaid, the 12th day of December, A.D. 1921, before me, William O. Teasenfitz Samuel J. Clark.

Albert C. Abbott, Surrogate.

ATLANTIC COUNTY SURROGATE'S COURT.

In the matter of the Probate of the Last Will and Testament of GEORGE P. STRATTON, deceased. ORDER FOR PROBATE.

Application having been made to me by William O. Teasenfitz and Samuel J. Clark, the executors named in the last will and testament of George P. Stratton, late of Pleasantville, in the County of Atlantic, and State of New Jersey, deceased, for probate of the said will and testament and letters testamentary thereon, and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken the proofs, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the said will, produced, the validity of its execution, and the competency of the testator, and the probate of the said will not being contested and it appearing that the testator died more than ten days ago: December 7, 1921;

It is on this Nineteenth day of December, A.D. 1921, adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is established as the last will and testament of George P. Stratton, deceased, and same is hereby admitted to probate; and it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued thereon to William O. Teasenfitz and Samuel J. Clark, the executors named in the said will who may qualify thereunder.

Albert C. Abbott, Surrogate. State of New Jersey, Atlantic County.

I, Albert C. Abbott, Surrogate of the said County of Atlantic, do hereby certify
