In the matter of the estate of } Bond.
Catherine Schuchhardt, deceased.

Know All Men By These Presents: That we, William H. Mead, James McDonald, and John S. Broas, all of Jersey City, in the County of Hudson and State of New Jersey, are held and firmly bound unto the Ordinary of the State of New Jersey, in the sum of Fifteen hundred Dollars, lawful money, to be paid to the said Ordinary, and his successors, for which payment, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals and dated this twenty sixth day of March, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eight. The condition of this obligation is such, that if the above bounden William H. Mead, administrator of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of Catherine Schuchhardt, deceased, shall well and truly administer the monies arising from the sale of any lands, tenements and hereditaments of Catherine Schuchhardt, directed by the Orphans' Court of the County of Atlantic to be sold according to law. And further, do make, or cause to be made, a just and true account of his administration, within twelve months of the date of the above obligation, and the surplus of money which shall be found remaining upon the account of such sale or sales the same being first examined and allowed by all the Judges of the Orphans' Court of the County, or other competent authority, shall distribute and pay unto such person or persons, respectively, as is, are or shall be entitled by law to receive the same, then the above obligation to be void and of none effect, in otherwise, to be and remain in full force and virtue.
