

Your petitioner further shows that she became of age on the twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and four;

Your petitioner further shows that she was never informed by either the said Mary Ann Cooper, Sr., executrix, or any other person that she was the devisee or legatee of the said James H. Robinson or any other person;

Your petitioner further shows that she was never informed of the contents of the said within mentioned last will and testament notwithstanding the fact that your petitioner has resided with the said Mary Ann Cooper, Sr. until the second day of April 1906.

Your petitioner further shows that there has been nothing done toward the settling of the said estate of James H. Robinson other than the filing of the said inventory;

Your petitioner further shows that before she was of age and since she has become of age there has never been a settlement of the said estate, nor has she received the amount or amounts due her by reason of the said devise and bequest;

Your petitioner further shows that there has not been placed with the clerk of or surrogate of this court the fund or funds so due her as the devisee and legatee of the said James H. Robinson, deceased;

Your petitioner further shows that she has received nothing from the said estate on account of or in partial or full settlement of her share of the said estate;

Your petitioner further shows that she, the said Mary Ann Cooper, Sr., executrix as aforesaid, has not filed a partial full or any other account of the said estate of the said James H. Robinson deceased, within the time required by law, within nine months, nor up and until the filing of the petition of your petitioner;

Therefore your petitioner prays that the said Mary Ann Cooper, Sr., executrix as aforesaid, may be decreed to file her final account forthwith, and that she may be further decreed to account for and pay over to your petitioner her distributive share of the said estate; and your petitioner further prays that this Honorable Court may revoke the letters of administration granted to the said Mary Ann Cooper, Sr., as aforesaid and remove her from office; and to this end, your petitioner further prays, that this Honorable Court cite the said Mary Ann Cooper Sr., to be and appear and answer the premises and abide such decree or decrees as this Court shall make therein.

And your petitioner will ever pray etc.
