Atlantic County Orphans Court

In the matter of Leon Rudelson deceased

It appearing that Annie Rudelson administratrix of the Estate of Leon Rudelson, deceased, has made report to this Court of the several claims and demands exhibited against said estate and that she exhibited therewith under oath a true and just account of the money, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the said decedent, which have come to her knowledge, hands or possession, and also an inventory of claims; and it appearing that the administratrix has given due notice to the creditors of the aforesaid estate to exhibit their claims and of her intention to make such report and to apply for a decree adjudging the said Estate to be insolvent pursuant to the order of this Court and the statute in such case made and provided, and it appearing that said report was filed in the Surrogate's office of the County of Atlantic twenty days before the day named for presenting the same; and it further appearing that no exceptions have been filed to the aforesaid report of claims, and account, and the Court having considered the amount of the personal estate and the value thereof, and it appearing to the Court that the personal estate is insufficient to pay the debts and that the said estate is likely to be insolvent;

It is thereupon on this 17th day of March 1909 ordered, adjudged and decreed that the aforesaid estate of Leon Rudelson, deceased, is likely to be insolvent and the said administratrix is hereby directed to proceed as if the said estate was insolvent.
