

Atlantic County, Probate Court

In the matter of the Estate of Enoch B. Scull, deceased

The second account of Abigail D. Scull and Bessie C. Scull, executrices of the last will of Enoch B. Scull, deceased, having been duly filed, exhibiting a balance of Ninety, nine thousand and four hundred eighty two dollars and seventy two cents ($99,482.25) of the said estate in their hands up to the fourteenth day of October, nineteen hundred and nine, of which a considerable sum is in cash and securities, and said account having been duly allowed by the court and it appearing that the said Enoch B. Scull, deceased, in and by his last will directed that all of the just, residue and remainder of his estate after payment of his debts and the expenses of settlement of the estate should be given one-third to his widow Abigail D. Scull and the remaining two-thirds to his children, Almeria Scull May, Sarah A. Scull, Bessie C. Scull and Laura Scull share and share alike; and the court having heard William M. Livingston, executor for the executrices and Abigail D. Scull, Bessie C. Scull, Sarah Scull, and Laura Scull, legatees and John Boyd Davis, executor for Almeria Scull May, and being of the opinion that forty two thousand and six hundred dollars in cash, the furniture, the stock of the Atlantic Safe Deposit and Trust Company, the Farmers National Bank at Mt. Holly, N. J., the Atlantic City Fire Insurance Company, the Second National Bank of Atlantic City, N. J., and the Atlantic Company for the culture of cranberries should be distributed, and it further appearing that due notice of this application has been waived by the parties interested

It is therefore on this fifteenth day of December, nineteen hundred and nine, ordered as follows:

1. That William M. Livingston, counsel for the executrices, be allowed the sum of eight hundred dollars in settlement of his services rendered up to and including the filing of this account.
2. That the executrices be allowed a commission of three per cent on sixty five thousand, eight hundred, thirty six and 5/100 dollars, the amount to be distributed on this accounting, and that the amount of commissions to be paid to said executrices on the balance of the estate undistributed, be reserved until the next accounting.
