In pursuance of an order of this Court made on the Twenty-sixth day of December, nineteen hundred and thirteen, directing the subscriber, the administratrix of Samuel Kirby, deceased, to sell certain lands of the said intestate, in the said order particularly designated and described:

I do hereby report that I did give notice that the said lands and premises would be exposed to sale at public vendue on the twenty-fourth day of January, nineteen hundred and fourteen, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Court Room, 201 Bartlett Building Atlantic City, N.J. by posting notices signed by myself, set up at five or more public places in the County of Atlantic, one whereof was in the Borough of Pleasantville in which lots #1 and #2 are situate, and one whereof was in the first ward of the Borough of Longport in which lots #4 and #5 are situate, and one whereof was in the first ward of the City of Ventnor, in which lot #3 is situate, at least three weeks before the time appointed to sell the same and also by publishing said notice in the May's Landing Record and The Atlantic Review, two of the newspapers printed and published in the County of Atlantic, in which said real estate is situate, of which one is a newspaper published at May's Landing, the County seat of the said County of Atlantic, for at least once a week during four consecutive calendar weeks, the last publication being not more than seven days prior to the time appointed for selling the same.

And I do further report that at the time and place so appointed and advertised, I did expose the said lands and premises to sale at public vendue to the highest bidder and Charles Wistar Evans then and there bidding for the same the sum of One Hundred dollars for Lot #1, one hundred dollars for lot #2, one hundred dollars for lot 3 and one hundred dollars for lots #4 and #5, making a total of four hundred dollars, and no one bidding so much or more for the same, or any of them, the said tracts of land and premises described as lots #1, #2, #3, #4 and #5 in the order of sale in this cause and in the notice of advertisement, were then and there struck off and sold to the said Charles Wistar Evans at the price aforesaid.

I attach hereto proof of the posting of the notices, of publication in the newspapers and the conditions of sale signed by the purchaser.

Respectfully submitted this twenty-fourth day of January, nineteen hundred and fourteen.
