OF SPECIAL INTEREST

Three of the local Churches, Methodist, Presbyterian, and Baptist, have united in a special effort to uplift and boost Hammonton.

"Hammonton, the Hub of South Jersey" should be the hub not only in an educational and business way, but also in a moral and spiritual way. So to foster this end, the Churches have secured

Rev. Thos. G. Needham (an effective and eloquent Gospel Evangelist), and

Harry E. Litchfield (a sweet and inspiring Gospel Singer), to conduct two weeks of special services in the Baptist Church, Third and Vine Streets,

April 13th to 24th, 1914, at 7.45 p. m., sharp. Large choir. Good singing. Bible Readings every afternoon at 3.45. All are invited.

Will Easter, which is to commemorate the resurrection of Christ, be spent as a holiday, or as a day of worship? Presbyterian services at 10.30; theme, "Life, what is it?" Beautiful Easter music. At noon, Sabbath School, having an Easter program. At 6.45, C. E. meeting.—Easter topic. At 7.30 the choir will sing a cantata, "The triumph of Alfred," by Arthur Johnson. Every service worthy of your attendance.

The High School nine defeated the Vineland boys, Wednesday, by a score of 11 to 0. Romeo and Esposito held the visitors to very few hits. Blazer's hitting and Stockwell gameness at second base starred for the home team, with Robinson, the colored player, for Vineland. There was an enthusiastic crowd at the game.

Batteries: Romeo and Esposito, pitchers; Esposito and Persico, catcher, for Hammonton; Pierson, pitcher; Robinson, catcher, for the visitors.

On Wednesday next, the Cape May H. S. team will play here. As this is their first visit, a large crowd is expected.

On Friday, 17th, Collingswood H. S. will come and try to avenge their last year defeat.

Everybody was pleased with our boys' new suits,—gray, with green trimmings, and monogram.

Easter Day in the Churches

Easter day is pre-eminently a day for church-going. Three hundred million people, it is estimated, through the churches throughout the world on Easter, bending the knee in homage before the King of Kings.

The Easter festival is one of the most beautiful in the church calendar, a festival in which flowers and exquisite music play important parts.

Easter is the harbinger of spring, the glorious season of hope, of revived life, presaging the immortality of which man in his philosophic moments has a vague perception.

Let this Easter day bring you into communion with that great church which God established for the redemption of the world.

Go to church on Easter and hear in anthem and sermon that marvelous story of the resurrection. Who knows? By that very act of attending the house of worship you may resurrect in your own soul the latent God hunger which, when it fills one's life, transforms him into a man of wondrous power.

Go to church on Easter and behold the flower laden chancel, the gorgeous varicolored blooms of spring, so beautiful to the human vision after the sterile winter.

Go listen to the exquisite music, the sacred compositions of many of the world's masters of harmony, which the choirs will render for your edification.

Easter day in church will appeal to all that is noblest and best in you. Go to church and partake of that spiritual uplift for which your soul yearns.

THE FIRST EASTER DAY. Never so sweet a bath as that of the first Easter day. Never so fair a sun as that of the first Easter day.

CURIOUS EASTER CUSTOM. A curious Easter custom has been observed for many centuries in the west. In those and the latter part of the century...

Easter Is Older Than Christianity

EASTER is much older than Christianity. The very name by which we know the day is identical with that of the ancient Greek goddess of spring, Eostre.

The Easter festival is one of the most beautiful in the church calendar, a festival in which flowers and exquisite music play important parts.

RESURRECTION

AN EASTER POEM BY LANNIE HAYNES MARTIN

A SEPULCHER of sodden earth, a pall of cold gray sky; A dreadful silence, save the dirge of the wailing wind's last sigh;

A dreary void, all colorless; no vibrant life doth thrill Across the widening wilderness—the far dim stars are still.

Beneath the bare, entombing earth a germ of life is pent In graveclothes, till an inward thrill, and cerements are rent.

And groping roots reach out to grasp the bosom of the world, And upward springs a budding plant with leaves like wings unfurled.

Upon its head a coronal of glittering rainbow hue, Like saint with fabled aureole—a lily crowned with dew.

THE heart's a tomb, all pulseless, cold. Long hid beneath the silent mold Of Doubt and Vanity and Hate, And yet beneath this mountain weight a spark divine with power untold.

When from the tomb the stone is rolled From unseem roots of Faith there spring The leaves of Hope, fast blossoming, And then a wondrous flower in bloom—

The flower of Love—and from the tomb The soul has risen. Thus reborn, Dost doubt the resurrection morn?

THE heart's a tomb, all pulseless, cold. Long hid beneath the silent mold Of Doubt and Vanity and Hate, And yet beneath this mountain weight a spark divine with power untold.
