BANK BROS.

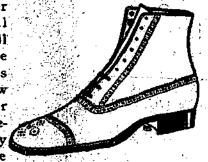

Larger Than Its Size.

Sometimes a business is really larger than its size: a paradox, but a fact. Size is measured by sales, but sometimes there is a big idea which dominates the business, bigger than the volume of sales; always bigger; the sales never catch up to it, no matter how much they grow. The big idea here is to see how much value we can give you. It is an idea that looks first at the interest of its custumers.

PETER'S RETURN.

Synopsis—Doctor Strickland, retired, is living in Mili Vailey, near San Francisco. His famility consists of his daughters. Aix. 21, and Cherry, it, and Anne, his niece. 24, Their closest friend is Peter Joyce, a lovable sort of recluse. Martin Lioyd, a visiting mining enginest, wins Cherry, marries her and carries her off to El Nido, a mine town. Poter realizes that he loves Cherry Justin Little woos Anne, Cherry comes home for Anne's wedding. Cherry realizes her marriage ta a failure. Peter tells. Cherry of his "grand passion," without naming-the girl. Martin comes for Cherry. Martin and Cherry drift Apart.

"Poor old Alix, if I had only been here to help you!" the man said. And for a moment they looked a little consciously at each other.

Judging from reports from druggists the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

In case you want a position, or wish to open an account, the mane of the san't in which you have your money deposited is an excellent reference as also insures a higher standing in your community, as people respect persons with means more than shiftless ones who live from hand to mouth with nothing laid by for a rainy'day.

Last, but by no means least, is the savings account for children. On the deposit of one dollar a child is given a bank which he cannot open himself in which to save his pennies, ricke's and dimes, and so lie is taught habits of thrift and saving that will benefit him throughout life.

A short time ago I asked a man (by the way, he was not connected with any bank) if he considered having a bank account an advantage. His reply was that a bank account was as necessary to the man and woman of today as a kitty bag to the sailor.

There are two kinds of bank accounts, the time deposit system and the checking account. The checking account is mainly to draw on for arrent expenses, while the time deposit system draws interest.

Palace Theatre To-Night.

"One a Minute." Douglas MacLean Chester Comedy, "Snooky's Wild Oata"

Announcement! On Monday, October 31st, Hallow E'en, the Palace Theatre will be closed; and on Monday, Nov 7th, we shall screen two episodes of the serial, "Yellow Arm."

Doors open 5.30, first show 5.45. Admission 10c.

Program for Week of Oct. 24th.

ackmy:-Eileen Percy, "Hicksville to Broadway." Episode Seven, "The Yellow Arm."

TUESDAY: Owen Moore, "A divorce of convenience." Bray Pictograph and Fox News.

WEDNESDAY:--Alice Brady, -- "Land of Hope." Century Comedy, "Stealin' Home."

THURSDAY:—Gladys Walton. — "The Rowdy." Episode Fifteen, "Diamond Queen."

FRIBAY Special :-- Ethel Clayton,

The story concerns the matrimonial ups and downs of a young woman artist who marries the idler son of wealthy parents, and finds that in place of a meal ticket she has opened up an unlimited debit account. Too proud to accept aid from his wealthy parents, she struggles along against bitter odds, but finally regeneration takes place, and she has occasion to be reasonably proud of her help-mate.

Suub Pollard Comedy," The Chink."

Admission 20c.

"SATURDAY:-William Fairbanks, "Broadway Buckaroo."

Bill Fairbanks, the most fearless daredevil on the screen uncorks some stunts in this Western that will make hair curl on a bald head. The picture, though a thriller, is clean and tree from all offensive saloon scenes, vulgar dance halls or binditry.

Chester Comedy, "Nobody's Wite." Doors open 5.30, first show 5.45. Admission 20c.

Eagle Theatre To-Night.

"Puppets of Fate." Viola Dana, Sunshine Comedy, "Nobody's Wife."

NEXT WEDNESDAY :- BOY SCOuts' Benefit, Wallace "The Charm School." Reod

And a Clever Comedy.

MEXT SATURDAY :- All star cast, "Hoarts are Trump."

A dramatic production of rare strength. Lois one of those which at the start make one feel that some tragic event is impending, and one is not disappointed. The story unfolds in England, moves swiftly to Alaska, thence to Switzerland. A blinding snow-storm, an avalanche, the most thrilling ever screened, are part of the magnificent outdoor scenery. It is absolutely clean and fit for every member of the family.

Brownie the Wonder Dog. "Golfing."

Doors open 7 o'clock, first show 7.15. Admission 20c.
