THE DEMOCRAT.

EGG HARBOR CITY, JANUARY 18, 1855.
FOR PRESIDENT
OF NEW JERSEY.
Subject to the Decisions of the Democratic National Convention.

SCHLESINGER.—On Friday morning of last week, Mr. High, lawyer of Atlantic City, while riding in his carriage, a calf was attacked with hussars of the long Heidecker. The animal was shot, and the rider was severely wounded. Mr. D. G. Schlesinger, who had the pleasure of this city, we intended to refer to again at the first favorable opportunity. The events of civil strife throughout the country, however, have prevented us from doing so up to this time before our readers a detailed account of this interesting collection, which has been accumulating during the last few months. A short time ago, it may properly be said, a compact citizen of the world, ancient and modern, is almost as civilized and barbarous now as he ever was.

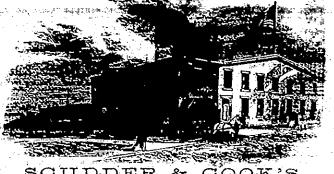

Heidecker is a man of the long
