NOTICE.

THE undersigned give notice to the inhabitants of Bridgeton and surrounding country, that she is prepared to lay out the dead, make shrouds, and attend to all matters pertaining to her profession. Having for several months been in the habit of visiting all who thoroughly understood what was wanted, I flatter myself that a trial in all that is necessary to show my experience to the business. Residence, corner of LAUREL and JEFFERSON Streets, formerly occupied by Mrs. Sarah S. Hand.

JUDITH L. SWING.

To the public and former patrons:—Having for a number of years followed the business of laying out the dead, and attending funerals, and having had the trial of the same, I feel that I can safely recommend Mrs. Swing as my successor, she having been trained with me for several months, and has become thoroughly versed in the wants of the public.

H. Ewell & Co.'s

MAP of NEW JERSEY.

This map, the result of Mr. Ewell's personal labors, assisted by Thomas F. Gordon, Esq., the well known author of the Gazetteer of New Jersey, and by all the State officers, is now ready for delivery. It has been compiled from the official returns in the several offices of the State, and from actual surveys, and is dated March 31, 1856. It comprises the latest and most accurate information of the Geological department, and the Railroads are laid down from the latest data in the State. The Legislature, with a liberality worthy of imitation, appropriated the sum of $2,000 for the purpose of obtaining the most perfect data for the construction of this map. Its publication was delayed for some months, in order that the Legislature might have the benefit of the labors of the Geological department, and see if the appropriation was sufficient for the purpose, by engraving on the old or printing on the new plates. Finding the old of printing on the new plates. Finding the old plates worn out, and the present publication unsatisfactory, the Legislature, passed March 31, 1856, a resolution authorizing and directing the publication of the map, which has been commenced and continued for some years, until the expense of publishing has exceeded the appropriation by the Legislature, when it was suspended. The State Geologist, Prof. Cook, to whom was assigned the head of the Geological department, did not like to see the map go out of the hands of the State in the State, obtaining an act for the purpose, he engraved the old or
