THE DEMOCRAT

FOR PRESIDENT.
JOEL PARKER,
OF NEW JERSEY.

DEFENDING THE PEOPLE.

The House of Representatives on Monday last adopted, by a strict party vote, a resolution declaring its opposition to the military disposition and negro policy. The precedent under which this resolution was adopted is the precedent of the late President's annual message that, in deference to the expressed will of the people, the mislaid reconstruction act be repealed. This act the majority refused to vote. Nothing else could have been expected. A party that laughs at the remains of a President has no respect for the most sacred obligations that recognize a rule of action, the limit of its power and the sphere of its responsibility.

It is to be feared that the next morning they will be as ready to repeal it as they were to pass it. It is to be feared that the next morning they will be as ready to repeal it as they were to pass it. It is to be feared that the next morning they will be as ready to repeal it as they were to pass it.

It is to be feared that the next morning they will be as ready to repeal it as they were to pass it. It is to be feared that the next morning they will be as ready to repeal it as they were to pass it. It is to be feared that the next morning they will be as ready to repeal it as they were to pass it.
