HOPE FOR REVERSAL IN HIGHER COURTS

COMMODORE AND OTHERS ADMITTED TO BAIL.

For Clemency.

Appeals have been taken from the sentences imposed Wednesday last by Justice Samuel Kallsch on Com, Louis Kuchnie, Engineer E. D. Rightmire, Freeholders Frank Enderlin and John Unsworth, Thomas McDevitt and George Amole. The prisoners were allowed their liberty under bonds pending decision of the higher courts. There are many who believe that the convictions will not stand.

Com. Kuchnie was sentenced to one year at hard labor and $1,000 fine for alleged illegal par-Helpation in a contract for a water main awarded by the Board of Water Commissioners, of which he was a member, to R. S. Lockwood, alleged to have been a "dummy" for the United Paving Company, in which Kuchule held stock: County Engineer Rightmire and Freeholders Unsworth and Enderlin were sentenced to terms of one year each for asking a bonus from Contractors James Parker and Elmer King before they would approve payment for the Cologne-Port Republic boulevard. Amole and McDevitt were convicted on charges of constracy and sentenced to three and six months in the County Juli, Freeholder holders, was not sentenced owing to the recent death of his wife. May will be arraigned for

The biggest crowd that has yet attended court since the return of indictments by the ellsor grand hary gathered in the court room to hear the sentences passed, waiting patiently over an hour before the Justice, clad in the sombre robes of his office, appeared in the it was placed in the receiving vanit, to be doorway of his private room after a long conference with the Attorney General. Almost as , cemetery. soon as the gavel sounded and the spectactors, who respectfully arose as the Court ascended the bench, Attorney General Wilson was on his feet with a motion for the sentencing of Amole and McDevitt, who were promptly arraigned, "I intended to make an example of you," remarked the Court, " but the appeal for mercy has been so strong that I cannot Before these two defendants had resumed their seats the Attorney General moved for imposition of sentence on Com.

"You stand convicted," said the Court to Com, Kuchule, "of the offense of buying been unlawfully concerned in a contract made by the Board of Water Commissioners of Atlantic City of which you are a member and its presiding officer, and the United Paving Company, a corporation in which you were a stock-

"I have been earnestly importuned by many influential and highly respected citizens of this County and elsewhere to exercise elemency in your case, and to punish you by the imposttion of a fine. The jury which convicted you recommended you to the mercy of the court, have given all these matters due reflection and weight. It has been urged with great persistency on your behalf that since it is the first criminal prosecution under the statute in this State that therefore there should be a mere monetary penulty.

If the contract had been made openly and under an honest impression and belief that it did not apply to stockholders of a eprporation who were holding public office dealing with corporations in which they were stockholders, an entirely different case would have presented itself.

If the sole aim of the law was to punish the offender, the reason advanced would have great weight with me; will be given during the coming month, after only purpose the law endeavors to achieve. It's main purpose is to preventerime. It is the deterrent effect which the certainty of punishment, not the severity of it, will have moon others with which the law is mainly concerned, and this is the basis of the duty of which I am called upon to perform. The imposition of a fine only in this case, in my judgment, would not have the deterrent effect to

More than a score of other defendants were present and the County Clerk had their indictments in Court, but despite a persistent rumor that they were to plend non vuit, Court adjourned without any such step being taken. The Court fixed Wednesday, February 7, as the date for the trial of Lyman Beyer, and William Smallwood, who are charged with the abducting of William Jones, an election officer,

Application for a new trial was made by J. Hampton Fithian, coursel for Frank Enderlin and John Uansworth, prior, to the imposition of sentence, but was peremptorily denied

No organization connected with the public are more worthy of encouragement than the debating societies, says an exchange. Even those who are most interested to-day in their promotion perhaps do not realize their power for good, but it is sufe to say that there is not a boy or a girl who, will enter heartily into the work of the well-planned, and intelligently supervised debating program without getting lasting benefits. It makes no difference what the individual's work may be in the future, there is a constant call for menta alertness and clear-headed thinking.
