PRESENT REGALIA TO FOR-MER RECORD CHIEF.

Visitors Partake of Corn and Venison With Narragansett Tribe and Enjoy Most Pleasant Gathering in History of Local Organization.

Dawnpouring rain Tuesday sheep did not deter a delegation of sixteen bardy braves from Arasapha Tribe of Atlantic City, who journeyed to the camptire of Narragansett Tribe at this 'place to hold a grand pow-wow with the local redmen at the invitation of the latter. The visitors arrived shortly after the Seventh hour and were met by Narragansett braves, who guided them through the storm and darkness to their comfortable lodge,

In recognition of his long and faithful fourteen years' service as Chief of Records, Dorie D. Hoover, who recently resigned from that office was presented with a handsome regalia by made by Great Representative of the Great Council of the United States James M. Cole man, of Atlantic City, in well chosen words expressing the good will of the Narragansett brayes to their former Chief of Records and their wishes for many prosperous snows before be journeyed to the Happy Hunting Grounds.

The box-wow was one of the most successful in the history of the local organization and will long be remembered by all present. following the presentation of the regalia the prayes partook of a bountiful repast of cornand venison and at a late hour the visiting redmen returned to their own campure by the åreal Sea Water.

Narragansett Tribe No. 101, L.O. R. M., wa founded twenty-one years ago with thirty charter members and the first meetings were held in the Court House. Later the lodge quarters over the store property at the corner of Main street and Maple avenue were secured, and when the new lodge room in the Post-office building was completed the camp fire was removed to those numbers which they how possess. There are now ninty-three members of the Tribe, which is in a prosperous condition financially and worth $1,000. Forty member attended the meeting Tuesday sleep.

Following are the present officers of the Tribe: Prophet, Curtis Hazelton, Jr.: Sachem, Daniel F. Vaughn; Senior Sagamore, Andrew G. Abbott, Jr.: Junior Sagamore, B. Laer Scull; Keeper of Wampum, W. LODGES ATTENDED SERVICES. Special Patriotic Sermon Preached by the Rev. William Disbrow.

Over one hundred lodge members representing the several fraternal organizations of the town attended services in the M. L. Chuash last Sunday evening in a body, assembling at the lodge headquarters in the Dipera House and Inriday by the State Fish and Game Commarching to the church marshalled by Captain William D. Souders. The orders represented through the efforts of Assemblyman Martin were Gen. William J. Sewell Post, G. A. Atlantic Lodge No. 50, L.O. O. F. The sermon of the evening, preached by th Pastor, the Rey, William Disbrow, was of a patriotic nature and one of the ablest eve delivered from a May's Lamling pulpit. The Rev. Disbrow chose as his topic for the evening "Our Country," and made loyalty the keynote of his sermon; loyalty to the flag and the principles for which it stands, and to the bible, which he termed the foundation of our national success, "I believe it was Providence," he said, "that inspired Queen Isabella to take from her neck those diamonds and to purchase ships for Columbus. It was the hand of Providence that guided us through our hational difficulties, and the same influence is working to-day for our ultimate good as a nation. America is a child of Providence, and her institutions are founded on the revaeled truths of the Bible, to which we must continue to be loyal. We need more of the B)ble in our homes and our schools and more reverence for it

GENERAL INTEREST OVER QUESTION AROUSED,

Opinions Differ Regarding Projected Improvement - Some Want New School Building and Others

Favor Remodeling Structure.

In regards to the new school project which is under consideration by the Board of Education, it is stated that a public meeting may be held previous to the regular school election in order to ascertain the sentiment of the people and form a definite plan of action. There is said to be considerable discussion by residents for and against the project and several plans for improved educational facilities have been suggested. While the Board has under consideration the probable cost of an entire new High School building, there is said to be some unfavorable opinion as regards the issue of Township bonds at this time for the purpose. Others are of the opinion that it would be a wise step so to do. Still others recommend rebuilding the present structure. No definite steps have yet been taken in the matter, which has been informally discussed by the Board at recent meetings and has aroused considerable public interest. If action is taken it will be during the coming month at the annual school election.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

Notwithstanding assurances from the various state departments interested and school officers, politicians adverse to the present administration are doing their best to raise a rumpus and gain false sympathy for themselves. Says the Trenton State Gazette: 'Democratic newspapers, with the purpose of making political capital for the party they represent and sympathy for themselves are falsely accusing the Republican administration of planning to 'raid' the public school fund. 'Raiding the school fund' has an ugly sound, and the newspapers that are using this phrase for a narrow and selfish purpose ought to be condemned from one end of the State to the other The Republican party has been generous with the public schools; it has done everything possible to develop and improve the public school system in this State. It has appropriated money lavishly out of the public treasury for the maintenance of the public schools, and has encouraged the movement that has been an active one for years in the direction of increasing the salaries of public school teachers. For all of this our democratic friends can take no credit. The 'school fund,' of which they have recently become so extremely solicitous, was ruthlessly raided by them when it was really a 'fund,' and they were in power in the legisature." The State Board of Education, County Superintendents and public officials have issued statements relative to the alleged "raid" and satisfactorily explained the intentions of the legislature. But some have eyes and will not see and ears and will not hear.

One of the departments of our Township public school system most deserving of consideration next term is the night school, the sessions of which have been discontinued owing to decreased attendance. For five months the school was maintained with considerable interest on the part of those endeavoring to gain an education, then waning attendance caused the Board of Education to close the department until next September. The good resulting from such a department is inestimable and is not directly evident. Foreigners were taught the language and working youth were enabled to secure a knowledge of books sufficient for all ordinary business purposes. If there was a mistake in the school it was in starting so early in the Fall. In the cities night school sessions usually begin a month later, continuing four or five months, and a similar course might be adopted here with good results and at less expense to the Township. The night school is a valuable institution to the community, lasting in its influence. Its success during the first year gives assurance of the maintenance of a similar department next term.

Sportsmen differ regarding the intended hunting license bill which the Fish and Game Commission purpose to introduce during the present session of the Legislature. It is regarded by many as an infringement of natural rights, while those who favor it assert that hunters will be more than repaid for the license fee by an increase of game resulting from its effects. The scheme has been tried in other states and resulted favorably, but game conditions in New Jersey are just a little different than in those commonwealths and the plan might not work out so well. The majority of sportsmen in Atlantic County are said to be unfavorable to the bill and indications show that it has not met with general approval in any section of the State. The burden of proof rests upon the Fish and Game Commission to demonstrate in a satisfactory manner that the measure is for the best interests of New Jersey sportsmen.

"Separate the Church from the State," said the Rev. William Disbrow in a sermon recently, "and recognized the wisdom of that principle. Especially and religious liberty are constitutional rights belonging to every individual. The State cannot dictate resources can only be had by restriction of use and production, and religious worship nor deny it in any home, school or one religious purpose. While the United States is primarily a Christian nation, our law cannot interfere who wisely and energetically seek her aid,"-Canden Courier, with the free exercise of religious liberty and belief. Every denomination is free to worship after its own form and to enlarge its following, but religious inthey are to be administered with justice and if religious liberty is to continue.

The return of the American fleet on Washington's and spread the fame and greatness of the United States throughout the civilized world. It was a cruise of peace, not of hostility, and the welcome accorded Uncle Sam's battleships in every port evidenced the goodwill of foreign nations. Not only will the cruise be productive of peace, but its influence will be felt he intended to put through the national body, and the intent of the bill was to provide an inlet entrance of not less than twelve feet over in commerce and general intercourse between the the bar. United States and foreign countries will be promoted. Sixteen men o'war conveying fifteen thousand well bring around a harbor of refuge, if not a port of entry. trained men is an envoy of peace that no nation can afford to ignore.

Congressman John J. Gardner has been working hard in the interests of Atlantic County and has secured a proviso in the Rivers and Harbors bill for a survey of the Atlantic City Inlet, with a view to makng that portion of the coast a harbor of refuge. That project has been a favorite one with the people of Atlantic City for many years and the proviso is a long step toward its fulfilment. With his usual quietness Any subscriber who fails to receive "The Record" regularly can the Congressman "has been saying nothing but sawing wood" and the result of his efforts in this line is now apparent. What appears like a mountain in Atantic County dwindles to the aspect of a molehill in Washington and the survey for the inlet, with hundreds of other river and harbor projects clamoring for attention, was secured only by the hardest kind of an effort and with a conscientious belief in its necessity to the shipping interests of the United States.

> The conquest of the air progresses steadily and at a rate that bids fair to realize the ambitions of neronauts of this generation. Two hours flight of a machine heavier than the bulk of air it displaces has been attained, and the use of the air as a highway may soon be more than a dream. Once the secret of aerial navigation has been mastered, as it undoubtedly will, the way will be open for wonderful developments. When the first railroad was built its inventor in his most sanguine dreams never imagined the half of its sphere of usefulness, but the final conquest of the air promises things much greater and too farreaching to be now comprehended by mankind.

> One of the most remarkable Winters in many years is drawing to a close. Changing climatic conditions are no doubt in a measure responsible, although several other causes are assigned. Truth to tell, the science of interpreting the weather is yet crude and no one can with certainty determine just what the reason is for such mild weather when ice and snowshould abound. "Uncertain as the weather" is yet a true saying, but the progress of science indicates that the laws will someday be discovered that govern the weather as well as other natural conditions. Speed the day!

The waters of Lake Lenape have been restocked with a large quantity of adult black bass, and it is safe to assert that the fame of this beautiful body of water as the finest inland fishing ground of the State Plumbing, Heating, Tin-Roofing will be enhanced by the multiplication of this gamey species. Black bass are one of the finest game fishes that swim and followers of the rod and reel will have Supplies for Equipment of Motor some rare good sport along the banks of the lake and the river above when the fish breed and multiply. The law against the use of nets in the waters of the lake should be rigidly enforced.

Abolition of the voting machine is provided for by a legislative bill containing thirteen words. It is possible that the measure will be carried, although some members are said to be favorable to retention of the machines. The question should be settled this Winter.and the controversy ended.

After his strenuous duties in Washington during his two terms as President, fighting the corporation The Proof of the octopus and reforming spelling, the wilds of Africa can hold few terrors for Theodore Roosevelt, the Great.

"Let the Republican party pledge itself-to-appropriate annually for the support of the public schools as much money as the schools have received in any year under the operation of the act of 1906 which devotes all but bue-half of one per cent, of the main stem milroad taxes to educational purposes, and then let the Legislature repeal that act. This would disarm the critics who oppose repeal on the ground that it will 'cripple' the schools.

"If the schools were to continue to get as much as they are now regiving there could be no force in the objection to rescinding the act of 1906. The schools would not suffer, but at the same time the State would be the gainer by any increase of taxes coming from an increased assessment of railroad proderly, and its revenue might also be inreased by a tax on Pullman cars and cars of the trusts that are operated on the railroads in this State

"This appears to us to be a practical, business-like solution of the juestion. We commend it to the careful consideration of the Repubican leaders."-- Camden Post-Telegram.

"Not satisfied with the initiation of an effort to bring about some effective means by which the natural resources of this country may be conserved, President Roosevelt has directed the Secretary of the State to extend a formal invitation to foreign powers for an international conference to discuss the conservation problem. OPTICIAN.

Of Getting Glasses One is to let some slick tongued fakir who peddles through the country come into your home and sell you a pair, and run the risk of ruining your eyes. They know how to fit a glass that makes you see splendid to-day, but it is an unnatural glass and the Eye cannot stand up under stand to wear them at all. Then you turn to your peddler-he is gone. We are here to stay.
