

INCAPACITY CONFESSED
BY WILSON DEMOCRATSSCHEME TO ROB SMALL
COUNTIES FAILS.Hennessey Foretells Reputation of Party Next November As Result of Failure to Carry Out Pledges —Adjourn Next Week.

THURSDAY, March 27.—The scheme indulged in by President Wilson and Governor Fielder to rob the small counties of their strength in the Senate, by means of a constitutional convention which the Attorney General held to be illegal, is as dead as last year's mackerel. The prediction repeatedly made in this correspondence that the Hennessey bill would be slaughtered in the Senate has been fulfilled. The bill came upon the floor Wednesday afternoon and received only four affirmative votes. There were forty-one votes against it. The Senators from the smaller counties, Democrats and Republicans, stood together in opposition to the pesky thing. The lone Republican vote in its favor was cast by Senator Colgate, of Essex county, the larger counties.

A blast from President Wilson is expected to follow the rejection of the Hennessey bill. It was one of his pet measures. If the prediction of the Wilson spokesman in the House, Mr. Hennessey, is accepted, the Senate by rejecting his bill has doomed the Democracy to defeat next Fall. The party has, to its language, confessed "incapacity and dishonesty." Its fate is thus foretold by him in a letter to Majority Leader Davis.

"Our failure in this, I am sure, will lead, as it will deserve to lead, to the reputation of the Democratic party next November."

But this is not the only Wilson policy that the Democratic Legislature repudiated this week. The House defeated the bill for a secondary choice in the party primary, thus repudiating the Wilson policy of Wisconsin, where it is in force, and urged the Legislature to apply it to the gubernatorial nomination. The bill was defeated in the House by a vote of 18 to 12. The Wilson forces in the House killed the bill. They also took a back at another Wilson measure, the German election law, passing a bill amending it so that personal registration should not be required in townships of a certain size.

Very seldom is another rock on which the Democrats are split. The gam of thwarting Wilson and ignoring the pledge to the people to remove the evil of Sheriff-controlled juries has been played adroitly and successfully. The Smith-Nugent crowd out-maneuvered Governor Wilson at the start in getting control of the House organization and from this strategic vantage ground have successfully blocked Wilson's every move. Orders come from the White House, while obeyed by the Senate, have been flouted by a majority of the Democratic Assemblymen. It has been a personal triumph for James R. Nugent, whom Governor Wilson deposed from the Democratic State Committee Chairmanship.

The reactionary spirit of this Legislature is shown in the several sessions upon Civil Service. The latest being the passage of Senate Bill No. 27, introduced by Majority Leader Davis, which deprives all officers, employees and appointees of the County, County and District Courts of Civil Service protection. President Wilson is an ardent supporter of Civil Service, so this is in effect repudiation of his leadership and a return to the spoils system.

Behind carrying out their platform pledges, bills have been introduced by the Republicans to promote social welfare and deal with poverty and dependency. One of these is Senator Nicholas' widow's pension measure, granting a pension to any indigent widow with children under sixteen years of age, enabling her to support them. This bill has passed the Senate. A bill abolishing the poll tax, which has passed the House, has as its sponsor Assemblyman Mary A. Ferguson.

As was anticipated, the sessions of the House of Assembly, with its overwhelming Democratic majority, are becoming farcical in the matter of consideration of bills. Scenes of disorder marked the night session this week and no one member expressed it, "the brakes are off." More than one vicious measure has already slipped through the House and railroad and other corporations, while the House is in session, and buy on the floor, a privilege not permitted them last year.

The salary-raising subcommittee continues. It took but five minutes to pass in the House a bill jumping the salaries of Vice Chancellors from $10,000 to $12,000.

Since the adjournment of the Legislature on Thursday, April 4, as provided for in a joint resolution adopted by both Houses, it is accomplished at all will be preceded by the most terrible slaughter of bills in the legislative history of the State. The calendar has been loaded down with about 1,200 bills and joint resolutions, making a new record of attempted law making. With but four working days next week it will be a physical impossibility to give even preliminary consideration to the hundreds of bills that have not been acted upon in either House. Thus will come to an inglorious end the "short and business-like session" promised when the Legislature convened early in January.

TO WIDEN ROAD ENTRANCE.

County Waiting For Property Owners
To Establish Curb-line.

As soon as property owners along the Egg Harbor boulevard between Main Street and Second Street have established curb-lines and placed in curbing the road will be graded its full width, which will make a handsome entrance to the municipality and greatly enhance the appearance of this avenue.

The object of building this entrance full width, however, is not so much to improve its appearance as to give autoists plenty of room to make the sharp turn on Main Street. With auto traffic increasing from three directions, it is a busy corner during the summer months and the widening of the road will make conditions much safer. Road Supervisor Japhet Price has promised Freeholder Ira T. Smith to place a force of men at work on the improvement as soon as the curbing is in place.

To Repaint Clerk's Office.

The interior of the Clerk's Office proper, that is, the two rooms forming the front offices, will be repainted during the coming week by Harry Jenkins. When the dilapidated building of the Clerk's Office was erected slightly in places, loosening the paint and the walls and ceiling of the front office are badly in need of the painter's touch.

Assemblyman Richards III.

Assemblyman Emerson L. Richards is confined to his home in Atlantic City by typhoid fever, which he is thought to have contracted from water he used while in Washington, D. C. His condition is not serious and, as no complications set in, he will be about again in a week or two, says his physician.

Carrow Gets Cole's Circuit.

By an order of the New Jersey Supreme Court, Judge Howard Carrow, of the Circuit Court of New Jersey, has been assigned to the counties formerly comprised in Judge Cole's circuit, viz., Cape May, Salem, Cumberland, Atlantic, Burlington and Gloucester.

CULVERTS TO REPLACE BRIDGES

Freeholder Smith Adopts New Policy
For Crossing Streams.

With seventy-six bridges in Hamilton Township to be maintained, which have been weakening at a rapid rate through decay, the question of crossing the streams with public roads and keeping the spans in a safe condition has become one of considerable moment and Freeholder Ira Smith, of this place, has decided on a new policy which has been tried out elsewhere with great success. It is his intention to replace the smaller bridges throughout the Township as rapidly as possible with culverts. The culverts will do away with wooden structures wherever possible.

These culverts are composed of acid-proof material, from which all corrosive elements have been removed, and are guaranteed for twenty years. Their life, however, is undoubtedly much longer than that, but owing to the fact that they have only been perfected a short number of years there has been no opportunity to judge just how long they will last. They are far more economical than wooden bridges in the first instance and will outlast a dozen wooden structures at least. Moreover, they are practically as strong as a solid road-bed and the road can be built and graded over them without interruption.

The bridge on the Weymouth Road known as "North Run bridge," which is in a most condition owing to the decay of the under structure, will be replaced with a thirty-inch culvert during the coming week. Two smaller bridges on the road from Weymouth to Hamilton will also be replaced with culverts.

Mrs. J. T. E. and her brother, Mr. Joseph E. Davis, of Omaha, Neb., that he and his family escaped injury in the tornado, although their residence was in the heart of the ruined district. Needless to say the message was received with thanksgiving as their escape seemed almost impossible. Mr. Davis telegraphed that the "cyclone never touched us."

Three fair maidens of the C. & K. Golf Club, Misses Helen Somers, Nina Shiner and Lucy Smith, while enjoying a sun-bath Tuesday noon on the veranda of the old Hudson residence, were suddenly startled and fled by a ghostly clamor within the building. Just as they were about to recover sufficiently to scream and skedaddle the "ghost" appeared at a window—Mrs. D. E. Vaughn, who had slipped into the deserted dwelling unmolested and successfully essayed the role of spook.

Grand Jury In Session.

A brief session of the Grand Jury was held Tuesday last, but little business was transacted, the members adjourning to catch the noon train. They will meet again Friday next, when Justice Samuel Kalish will be here and is expected to have a special charge to deliver touching on exiles, gambling and other questions. Prosecutor Charles E. Moore will have charge of the presentation of evidence before the jury.

Improving Court Room.

Improvements are being made to the interior of the main court room, which will be completed during the coming week by Herman Carrow. The carpenter has been taken up and a general "house-cleaning" program is being carried out. The room will be ready for the session of court on Friday next.

Freeholder Harris III.

The many friends of Freeholder Edward Harris, of Ventnor City, a prominent seashore real estate man, will regret to learn that he is confined to his home critically ill with pneumonia.

Heavy Downpour of Rain.

Heavy downpours of rain have occurred during the past week in this vicinity, accompanied by typical March gales. The temperature has been above normal.

KIRBY CANNOT RECOVER

Death Expected Any Time In Last Twenty-four Hours But His Great Vitality Yields Slowly To Grim Reaper's Summons.

Although his death had been expected at any time during the past twenty-four hours, County Clerk Samuel Kirby was still living yesterday at the hour of going to press, his wonderful vitality battling to the last with the Grim Reaper. Physicians in attendance, who gave up hopes of his recovery several days ago, announced Thursday morning that his death was only a question of hours and that evening his messages were practically the same.

County Clerk Kirby was obliged to take to his room several weeks ago after a complicated illness of more than a year's duration and though he rallied at times his condition steadily grew worse. After last Sunday, when he, as an old friend, came down from Philadelphia to see him and held a consultation with Dr. Youngman, all hopes of his recovery were abandoned.

"His death is only a matter of a few hours," said Dr. Youngman last evening. "He is unconscious and gradually growing weaker. There is no chance for his recovery."

STRONG GALE PLAYS HAVOC.

Office of Brick Plant Blown Down and Other Damage Done.

An echo of the terrific storm in the West struck the County Capital Thursday afternoon and wrought considerable damage. At the plant of the Atlantic Brick Manufacturing Co., the office, a two-story frame building, was blown completely over. Fortunately George Myers and Curtis Hazleton had left the building and were in another part of the plant or they would likely have been seriously injured, as the building was demolished and the heavy safe in the office crushing across the room would have killed anyone in its path. The office is a complete wreck.

An old barn on the Joslin property along the river was blown over by the gale and several trees uprooted, slight damage being done to many buildings. For a few moments the wind was terrific, accompanied by a blinding rain. At Egg Harbor City several buildings were blown down but no one was injured.
