TAFT IS WINNER
OF RENOMINATIONRoosevelt Absolutely Defeated
For a Third Term.

BAY STATE TELLS TALE.

Former President Needs 311 Delegates to Win, and Only 310 Remain to be Elected—Tables Tell the Story—The States in Which Delegates Are Yet to Be Chosen.

Mr. Taft needs 311 delegates to win.

Total 501.

of the delegates to be elected 310.

Mr. Taft needs 311 delegates to win.

Mr. Roosevelt needs 310 delegates to win.

Mr. Coolidge needs 310 delegates to win.

The states of Arkansas, 18 votes and Nevada, 6 votes, are now ready to finally both be for President Taft. This means 24 additional votes for Taft and makes the real Taft figures as follows:

For Taft 491
Mr. Taft needs 311 delegates to win.

Adding Arkansas and Nevada to the Taft total would increase the total of delegates elected to 708 and reduce the number to be elected to 310. If we take the Roosevelt table as follows:

Number of delegates yet to be elected 310
Mr. Roosevelt needs 310 delegates to win.

Hence Mr. Roosevelt has already lost control of the convention.

Delegates Elected.

The delegates already elected to the Chicago convention are either instructed or pledged to the various candidates as follows:

Thus it is apparent that President Taft's renomination is assured and that further opposition to him is hopeless. From now on the contest in the Republican party is a mere hand-wagging procedure.

The Taft delegate ticket was defeated through a technical error on the part of the Bay State, who were confused by the presence of an independent Taft candidate on the ballot. This has caused more than 18,000 votes to be cast for nine instead of eight Taft delegates at large, thereby invalidating their ballot, although their preference was plain to show. In recognition of this fact Colonel Roosevelt, who has waived his claim to the delegates, Taft's Widespread Support.

The overwhelming support of the president has been held by Roosevelt everywhere, except in the Bay State and his renomination has now conceded. The president will verify the claims of his campaign managers made early in the contest in that he will have a majority of the delegates at large from the north, south, east and west. The president has already earned the rock-ribbed Republican states of New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, Delaware, Indiana, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Iowa, Colorado and Nevada. The Republican states yet to be heard from include New Jersey, Ohio, Minnesota and most of the mountain and Pacific states all of which are leaning to the president's support.

The figures to date showing the utter hopelessness of Mr. Roosevelt's campaign for renomination and the absolute certainty of the renomination of President Taft, is contained in the following tables:

Number of delegates to the national convention 1968
Necessary to nominate 1,300
Delegates elected 1,310
Delegates to be elected 441

Of the delegates elected Mr. Taft has 440
Mr. Roosevelt has 128
Mr. La Follette has 35

One of the most interesting features of the commendations which the president has received upon choosing a woman the first woman to hold a bureau headship under the government for this important work has been the voluntary expressions from women of the highest rank in the nation for human conservation. Among those who have expressed themselves in the highest praise of the act of President Taft are Rev. Anna H. Shaw of New York; Mrs. Philip N. Moore of St. Louis president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. John Miller Horner of New York, vice president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution; Mrs. Margaret Dye Ellis secretary of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union; Miss Mabel T. Boardman, secretary of the American Red Cross; Mrs. John Hayes Hammond, chairman of the women's welfare department of the National Civic Federation, and Miss C. E. Atta son of Turneytown, N. Y.

PENSION RECORDS SHOWN.

Congressmen Praise Taft's and Roosevelt's Acts.

President Taft's attitude toward pensioners for the veterans of the civil war has been persistently misrepresented throughout this entire campaign by his opponents. Recently Representative Cyrus Sillaway of New Hampshire for many years chairman of the committee on pensions of the house of representatives, went on record publicly in favor of President Taft and against Mr. Roosevelt, basing his judgment solely on the pension record of the two candidates. Now Representative Isaac R. Sherwood of Ohio, author of the "dollar a day" pension bill, with which every old soldier is familiar, adds his testimony in favor of President Taft and against Colonel Roosevelt on the pension record. The fact that General

Sherwood is a Democrat only adds to the effectiveness of his statement as his sole interest between Republican and Democratic candidates is to see to it that the interests of the old soldiers are fully and fairly protected. In a recent letter to his brother he wrote:

"What I said about President Taft was that I believed he would sign a moderate pension bill if it was introduced in the house."

But President Roosevelt, when he was a member of the house, voted for all the pension bills introduced in that body, for almost every pension bill was introduced by him, and he was instrumental in getting them passed. He also introduced a bill to allow the old soldiers to follow the bill to be reported to the house. He has also introduced a bill for the same purpose for the Senate.

Thus it is apparent that President Taft's renomination is assured and that further opposition to him is hopeless. From now on the contest in the Republican party is a mere hand-wagging procedure.
