

FORMER GOV. MURPHY
AND PRESIDENT WILSON
AGREE ON GERAN LAW

EASY FOR INCOMPETENT AND UNSAFE MEN TO BE NOMINATED

President Wilson and former Governor Murphy apparently agree in their opinions on the proper attitude to be taken toward people the right to make the nominations for the various officers in the State of New Jersey.

Before the session of the Republican State Convention at Trenton, N. J., last night, Governor Murphy frankly stated that he was opposed to the nomination of Woodrow Wilson for Governor because he did not believe the best results had been secured through his operation.

Governor Murphy believes that the German law making it impossible for a citizen to be elected to office and prevents such men as Wilson must only serve the State from entering into a primary free-for-all fight.

President Wilson has during the past year or two indicated that he agreed with Governor Murphy. He did not think it was wise to elect to permit the voters of his party to nomination to the United States Senate. He has been one of the most prominent candidates in order to make it impossible for any other man than the present United States Senator, William Hughes, to be nominated. The President is pursuing the same course this year in connection with the gubernatorial nomination in New York. Mayor La Follette, of Jersey City, to withdraw his name from the gubernatorial fight, the defeat of Frank S. Katzenbach, Jr., by Governor Fielder, in the primary battle in September, may be certain.

If President Wilson was of the opinion that the present law had proven successful he would not permit a Democratic candidate to be elected to the Senate until after they wanted to withdraw Fielder or Katzenbach as their candidate. In taking the matter out of the hands of the people and eliminating Wittmann, if, in fact, speaks for more convincingly than any other man in the State, the President term law really is, Katzenbach, however, emphatically refuses to get out of the fight and leaders predict his nomination.

FACTORY HANDS ON STRIKE.

Sheriff Had Posse In Readiness For Riot Call.

A posse summoned by the Sheriff was in readiness last day yesterday ready to respond to a riotous mob in Richmond, where a strike is in progress among factory hands at that place. But fortunately their services were not needed, though a large time piece were in fear of being set on fire.

There is a number of Italian workers who recently brought to Richmond by the factory owners to work at a certain making and Following this move the twenty managers met for a number of Jewish workers and the Italians found themselves without work, whereupon they became indignant and on several days trouble has been brewing. The more demanding pay due them and carriage back to New York. It is hoped that an amicable settlement will be reached today.
