SOUTH JERSEY ODD FELLOWS WILL HOLD FIG FIELD DAY.

Great Gathering of Order Next Month at Lenape Park.

In September next there will be such a gathering of Odd Fellows at Lenape Park as has never before been witnessed in the County Capitol, the occasion being a field day for the members of the lodges of South Jersey and their families. The idea was launched about a month ago at a meeting of Atlantic Lodge, No. 50, I. O. O. F. of this place.

In order to see what could be done a committee was appointed and other lodges of the County, including American Star Lodge, of Atlantic City, were consulted. A joint committee meeting was held and as a result it was decided to hold the outing as soon as possible under the auspices of the Atlantic County Lodges and invite all the lodges in South Jersey guests.

An effort will be made to have the grand officers attend the outing, for which an elaborate program will be arranged and a day of merrymaking is promised. Definite arrangements will be concluded during the coming week.

REV. RIDOUT TO TEACH AT TAYLOR UNIVERSITY

Will Also Assist In Editing Old Religious Publication.

The Rev. George W. Ridout, a former pastor of the First M. E. Church of this place, will leave the East October 1, to accept a professorship in the theological department at Taylor University, Upland, Ind. The Rev. Mr. Ridout is now stationed at Port Norris and leads the moving spirit at the Fletcher Grove Camp Meeting at Lenape.

It is not known who will succeed Mr. Ridout as the President of the Camp Meeting Association. In connection with his university duties, Mr. Ridout will be assistant editor of the Christian Witness, an old established religious paper of Chicago.

Rev. Ridout has many friends here who extend congratulations and wish him every success in his new field.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Mrs. Alwilda Moore was an Atlantic City visitor yesterday.

Mr. Daniel McClure, of Millay, is the guest of his son, Mr. D. W. McClure.

Miss Dolores Taylor was the guest Tuesday evening of Miss Helen E. Somers.

A number of citizens enjoyed the dollar excursion to Wildwood last Thursday.

The members of the Esteville M. E. Church will hold their annual picnic at Lenape Park today.

Workmen are removing several large oak trees at Sugar Hill in the right way of the new road.

Mr. John Watson and children, of Camden, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Smallwood.

The Misses M. Alice Sander and Baeber Ingerson are home after attending the Summer School at Cape May.

While playing near his home Saturday last James, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hoover, fell and fractured his arm.

Prof. and Mrs. S. G. Hather and children left Thursday afternoon for an extended sojourn at Telford, Pa.

Mrs. Bertha E. Kramer, who taught last year in the Ocean City High School, will teach next term in the schools at East Orange, N. J.

Mr. Fred Trickey returned to his home Sunday evening in Union Hill, N. J., after a pleasant stay here as the guest of friends.

Several May's Landing boys witnessed the base ball series between the Athletics and Cleveland teams this week in Philadelphia.

Road Overseer Job Smallwood had a force of men at work Thursday following the heavy rain storm clearing out the drains and gutters.

Mrs. Charles E. Remmey returned Wednesday evening last from a good trip to Baltimore, Md., where she attended the funeral of her mother.

James Darlington, of Millville, moved his family to this place last week. Mr. Darlington is employed by the West Jersey and Western Railroad section foreman at Mizpah.

The many friends of Vaughn Riley, son of Mrs. Anna Riley, of this place, who lost his eye recently, will be pleased to learn that the sight of the other eye has been saved and that he will be able to return from the Jefferson Hospital next week.

Wright Bolton, former resident of this place, but now residing in New Bedford, Mass., general superintendent of Acmelet Industries Corporation, was a visitor here Tuesday last and was cordially greeted by his many friends. Mr. Bolton was employed as master machinist in the Morris Wood cotton mill seventeen years ago.

David T. Arthur A. and Walter S. Austin, brothers of Mrs. Harry Abbott and Frederick Austin, arrived in May's Landing Thursday, after touring from their home in Pittsburgh, Pa., in their Buick auto. They had a very pleasant trip and were delighted with Jersey roads.

Word was received here yesterday afternoon of the sudden death of James Stewart, of the Bronx, N. Y., who dropped dead on the street on his way to the Miner's Theatre, where he was employed as electrician. He was forty-two years of age. Mr. Stewart and his wife spent the summer here at their cottage on Hudson Street and the news came as a great shock to his many friends at this place, whom he bid good-bye two weeks ago apparently in the best of health.

The Sunday School class of Mrs. Melv. K. Morse enjoyed a pleasant trip to Millville Saturday afternoon, last, where they were the guests of Mrs. William Barrett. Leaving on the 1:15 p. m. train they went to Vineland, thence to Millville by trolley. Mrs. Barrett, a former member of the class, entertained them royally at luncheon. Fourteen plates being laid, laden with all delicacies of the season, those who attended were Mrs. Annie Kean, Mrs. Charles Kean, Mrs. Charles Ball, Mrs. Charles Stewart, Mrs. Chris. Ebenberger, Mrs. Harry Taylor, Mrs. M. R. Horne, Misses Besse Abbott and Luella Ingerson. Mrs. D. F. Vaughn was the guest of the class.

Made Flowers of Bread Crumbs.

When Oresto Torri, an Italian, who was recently sentenced to serve from one to seven years in State Prison by Judge C. L. Cole for carrying concealed weapons, was being prepared to take his trial last Monday he went back into his cell and on coming out carried a beautiful bunch of Jack roses and several bouquets of various flowers that resembled wax and presented them to Mrs. J. R. Bartlett, wife of the Deputy Sheriff. He also had a pair of baby shoes. The designs were all made out of short bread and old newspaper. The colors he extracted from the colored pages of the Sunday paper supplement.

Sea Isle City Defeated.

The May's Landing Base Ball Association journeyed to Sea Isle City last Saturday afternoon and again defeated the team representing that resort in an interesting and exciting game by the close score of 4 to 3. The Association played at Hammonton this afternoon.

Physician Returns.

Dr. Gordon L. Barker, who practiced medicine here for several years and went West for his health, has returned to May's Landing and has opened an office in the Moore Building which will be his headquarters. Mr. Barker and children, who are now in Denver, Colo., will join him later.

MALIA FINED BY COURT

One Thousand Dollars and Costs
In Lieu of Jail Sentence—Bail of Charles Stewart, Bogus Check Giver, Reduced.

William Malia, a former Atlantic City Councilman, who pleaded guilty, to bribery on two different occasions, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000 and costs following his plea of guilty to an indictment charging him with accepting a $200 bribe for securing a liquor license by Judge Cole presiding in the Common Pleas Court Monday morning last.

In passing sentence the Court said he had upheld his mind to impose a jail term, but had taken into consideration the fact that much a sentence would impose a hardship and suffering on the defendant's family, who were in no degree responsible for the crime.

View of this he would not send him to jail, but would order him to pay a fine of $1,000 and costs.

Both a fine and a cost were imposed on the defendant upon his guilty plea.

This action was taken because of the numerous auto accidents which have occurred recently, the danger existing having been particularly emphasized by the fatal accident Saturday last, when the wife and daughter of E. P. Shulahack, of Woodbury, were killed.

Both a fine and a cost were imposed on the defendant upon his guilty plea.

MAY'S LANDING, AUGUST 5, 1913.

Ortives the only way to get out a man, especially a knave, is to pay him off.

Carrying concealed deadly weapons is a deadly mistake as well as a dangerous weapon, and is a habit that cannot be broken easily or conveniently.

Details of crimes on the roads at night should make greater caution than the laws with respect to carrying firearms, but there is nothing less than arrest and fine will property salute.

Frank S. Ketcham, who has "joined the other times," and repudiated the Wilson overbearing in St. Louis, has many warm friends and admirers among Democratic leaders in Atlantic City who would be deeply grieved if he were to become one of the primaries. From all indications, the Wilsonites about to meet in Texas, for a critical political meeting do not concur in it for "Fun." Sunnis' slogan, "Time is heat on record," indicates that, if any meeting is held, it must have a hand or having money and ways with its support. Ketcham's talk is the choice of the party for nomination.

Every last detail of his movement and the secreted maneuverings of the Southern States to set up a Southern party in this country. Since a condition of affairs as exists is dependent not only on the country, but the State at large, and is a policy that it must be carried out, the Southern custom of sending delegations to the national convention, running candidates in state and in open country, later holds greater novelty and interest than even the chance of a change of government.

The popularity of St. Louis' slogan explains the coming crowd power of the Wilsonites in the little city of Texon, with the Democratic party split in the war at arms. St. Louis' slogan is resonant of a long history. For a long time, it has been the logical motto, both for those having the right to rule and those who have the right to be ruled.

From the extensive information on the St. Louis' side, the Southern party, which is the result of the little Texas party, is destined for another term at Texon, with the Democratic party split in the war at arms.
