PASSED WORTHLESS CHECKS

Court Gives Woman Chance To Make Good Before Passing Sentence

Adjusted guilty of passing worthless checks at Pleasantville at a special session of Criminal Court held Thursday last, Miss May V. Miller was given a chance to repay the merchants she defrauded before passing sentence. She was held under seven indictments, all showing similar facts.

The first case involved Mrs. O. J. Wierman, fire-tire dealer, who furnished a receipt for a check for $274 in payment for furniture and china, but the paper was returned marked "funds?" Then he confronted the woman a defrauded pay, and she evaded by moving and selling a part of the furniture at a low price.

An interested audience of Pleasantville merchants and witnesses heard the case, who requested the attention of the Court, the great part of the session.

HALL BURNED THREE TIMES

Minotula Red Men Suspect Incendiary Building Insurance

Minotula had another fire alarm at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning, when the large Red Men Hall was destroyed by a fire that endangered the rest of the town, which has no fire-ditch apparatus. The loss is estimated at $10,000. The fire started in a shed, and did the fire destroyed Minotula Hall, which stood on some 300 feet prior to its burning January 4.

Residents of the town suspect incendiary. Was a Norton who ran a building and rooming and a restaurant, and the Board of Education of Buena Vista Township, which $60 worth of property stored there since burning of the schoolhouse, but everything Minot Tribe of Red Men owned the building which was well insured.

Card of Thanks,

appreciation to all those who in any way helped to extinguish the fire and save the house from certain certain destruction. Monday evening, 30 many worked so hard and efficiently that it is impossible to list each one but many even could not know all were. We feel that the flames had in such rapid headway before their drench that only a miracle and the rapid aid of the Reliance Home Company, the youth and women saved it. We thank you all and feel that it is due to you which can never be repaid. We also deem that you will also come forward afterwards with offers of hospitality. (Misses) M. and Esther Sander.

Yacht Club Elected Officers

At a meeting of the May's Landing Yacht Club held last evening at the Law Office of Albert C. Brown, officers for the ensuing year were chosen. The Club held its last week, when the Rev. S. K. Moore, chosen as secretary pro tem filled the vacancy caused by the resignation of Secretary W. Jackson, and the matter of a regatta internally discussed, action being postponed until last evening. The Club also discussed removal of dangerous stumps in the river.

THE TOWN OF NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

The Place To Spend
Your Summer Vacation

MAY'S LANDING, N. J.

Sites for Bungalows
For Lease or Sale

Founded at the head of tide water on the banks of the Great Egg Harbor River, May's Landing has enjoyed from the first the reputation of being the most beautiful, most healthful place of residence in this section of New Jersey. Its magnificent oak trees have become famous, and beautiful Lake Lenape is scarcely less well-known. Inducements to manufacturers are exceptionally good. For the truck farmer and poultry raiser it is an ideal location, and the mecca of those seeking Summer homes at a reasonable cost.

Splendid boulevards for automobiles lead to May's Landing from every point, including the direct road from Philadelphia by way of Downton and the Egg Harbor City boulevard, leading from the White Horse Pike. The Great Egg Harbor River boasts of an active Yacht Club open for membership. This picturesque waterway affords good boating, bathing and fishing, and is a popular highway with yachtsmen to Atlantic City, Ocean City and other seashore resorts.

Municipal conveniences include cold, sparkling water, 99 percent pure from an artesian well, supplied through a new public water works system, first-class fire protection with consequent low insurance rates, low rates of taxation, electric lighting, prosperous churches, good public schools, etc. If you never visited May's Landing, it is time to do so. If you are looking for a Summer place of residence, this is the ideal place for you. "The Town of Natural Opportunities" is Your Opportunity.

Twenty minutes from Atlantic City, the Greatest Seashore Resort in the World.
Only one hour from Philadelphia.

CHILDREN'S TEACHERS.

Teachers of children should be selected with care. They should be of the right age, have agency in the prevention of crime, they aid in regulating the moral atmosphere, whose incessant action and pressure cause the blood to circulate and to return pure and healthful to the heart of the nation.—Mrs. Simmons

The Planet Mars.

The planet Mars resembles the earth more closely than any other unit of the solar system that we know anything about. Mars is smaller than the earth, and its gravity is less. Its atmosphere is rarer than that on the highest mountains. It has probably no oceans and very little free water, except in spring, when the snow melts.

Social Trickery.

A number of North Atchison, girls recently invited their friends to a party, saying that a feature of the entertainment would be a swimming match between two girls. Every one went and found that this part of the programme was carried out by two girls sitting at a table with a bowl of water between them in which a match floated. The men felt that they had been cheated.—Atchison Globe

His Majesty's Lost Teeth.
One of the oldest adventures of a king's speech occurred in 1825, when, as we read in the new biography of Sir Woodbine Parish, King George had lost his false teeth and the lord chamberlain, Eldon, who was strongly opposed to the policy the speech contained with regard to the recognition of the South American republics, was obliged to deliver it with a very bad grace and no enthusiasm.

How He Escaped.
"But," says the returned explorer, "although I seemed to be hopelessly lost and there was not the slightest sign of a trail, I was not the least alarmed, for at that moment some nomadic Kurds rode into my camp."

"Why were you not alarmed?" asks a listener.

"I knew the Kurds would show me the way."—Chicago Post.

Makes Her Dumb.

Nodd.—What! You are out every night until 31. Isn't midnight late enough?

Todd.—I find that when I get home at midnight my wife can talk to me, but when I get home at 3 words fail her. Life

The Last Word.

"Hubby (with irritation)—Why is it that you women insist upon having the last word? (Wife, faintly)—We don't. The only reason we get it is because we always have a dozen arguments left when you stupid men are all run out."—London Home Journal

Merely a Trick.

"I suppose," said a girl, "I didn't fail to remember you, but I didn't think of the sympathy."—Chicago Post.

You could hardly call it a remembrance.—Chicago Post.

Street Vendor.—Excuse me, please, my wife has lost her umbrella. Can you help me find it?—London Punch.

The Old Time Skipper.

Inmates of the workroom on an American man-of-war often allude to the captain as the old man or the skipper. The latter is not, as many suppose, a slang term, but a sound word, of excellent etymology and valuable as carrying with itself an interesting bit of commercial history. Skipper is a ship's captain, and it comes down from a time when every commander was as well part owner of vessel and cargo as literally the skipper. There are still local shipyards along the Atlantic coast, some of them the outgrowth of private yards where the "coveys" of years ago built their own ships to carry their own and their neighbor's crops to market.
