POLITICAL BRIGADES IN BATTLE ARRAY FOR PRIMARY DAY FIGHT

PARTY TICKETS WILL BE MADE UP AGAIN BY DIRECT VOTE

POLLS OPEN FROM SEVEN TO NINE

Three Tickets In Hamilton Township—Voters Must Cast Ballot They Supported Last General Election Says Law—Some Say New Method Violates Their Right To Secrecy In Voting.

On Tuesday next, from seven o'clock in the morning until nine at night, the Primary Election will be held throughout New Jersey for the nomination of candidates on the several political tickets. Each party will have its own ballots and voters must cast the ballot of the party for which they selected their ballot last year. If they voted for candidates on both tickets they must vote the ballot of the party from which they selected the greatest number of candidates.

This feature of the new primary law is proving so objectionable to many voters who believe in the right of secret ballot that since it went into effect they have refused to vote. The law provides that voters shall vote as outlined above, but as there is no way of making a man divide his preference next year it is hard to see how election boards are going to enforce this feature of the statute.

The polling places in Hamilton Township will be the same this year as last—Library Hall in the Second Precinct and Stintwood's residence in the First. There is no change in the election boards.

No petitions have been filed for poll-keepers or surveyors of highway in the Township for either party, but voters may nominate in blank spaces left for the purpose by writing in the names of those for whom they wish to vote, which will cause the one receiving the largest number of votes to be named name printed on the ticket for the general election, provided he accepts the nomination.

Only three tickets are in the field in the district—Republican, Progressive and Democratic. The candidates whose names appear on these are as follows:

TALL CEDARS STEP HIGH AT LENAPE PARK OUTING

Jolly Time For Masonic Fraternity On Banks Of Lake.

Joy was the pass-word Wednesday last of the Tall Cedars of Lebanon, Atlantic City Forest, which held its annual outing and field day here at Lenape Park, attended by two hundred members of this Masonic fraternity and their wives, daughters, sweethearts and et cetera. "Step high" was the slogan from three in the afternoon till the last trail to Atlantic City in the evening and a jollier crew never assembled on Capt. Kidd's pirate ship than that assembled on the banks of Lake Lenape.

To start the ball rolling the Rangers and Rough Necks mixed it up in a three-legged horse pull running contest, both sides dropping from exhaustion at the completion of the third round, after so many runs had been piled up on either side that it took the senior half-a-hour to compute the result, thirty-seven for the Rangers and forty-three for the Rough Necks. City Treasurer Al Boyer's battle was the feature of the game, his shamian out a bangle every time it bat.

Charles Ynez won the fit men's race in three heats. Other winners were: ladies', Miss Helen Jones (some runner, too); Chicken race, Harry Bogatin; (He tripped and fell on the poor hen); boys' race, Russel Holt; girls', Gladys Mathis; skinny rips race, George Verner.

Following the athletic contests, adjournment was made to the pavilion, where a bountiful chicken pot-pie dinner was served. After the decks were cleared the music started for the dancer, which kept up till late hour.

Two Tall Cedars bent on demonstrating their prowess with the girls to their friends planned their boats on stampum and came near spending the night on the lake. All hands, however, reached home in safety after one of the best outings on record in the annals of the Forest.

There has been considerable squabbling in the Democratic ranks of the County over this appointment. Two delegations visited the Governor and urged him to appoint Shinn, Henry W. Lewis, a well-known Democratic lawyer and city solicitor of Pleasantville, was also a candidate for the appointment and had considerable backing. It was claimed that the Democratic County Committee had endorsed Lewis, but the Shinn men disputed this claiming that not all of the committee were present when the vote was taken and that therefore the endorsement was not regular.

SHINN APPOINTED TO SUCCEED JUDGE COLE

New Jurist Well Fitted For County

Bench—Has Made Efficient Head of Tax Board And Brought About More Equal Assessments.

Clifton C. Shinn, of Atlantic City, was named Tuesday by Governor Pfeifer as Judge of the Atlantic County Court of Common Pleas, to succeed Judge Clarence Cole, who resigned.

Judge Cole's resignation will take effect on October 1, at which time Judge Shinn will assume his judicial place.

The appointment of Judge Shinn is ad interim, and when the next legislature convenes his name will be sent to the Senate for the full term.

Judge Shinn has been head of the County Board of Taxation for a number of years and has brought about a great change in the methods of assessing property in the various municipalities. He has forced the railroads and other corporations to pay increased taxes and done much to equalize assessments generally throughout the County.

Judge Cole, it is said, will return to a law practice which he gave up to accept appointment to the Circuit Court bench, later resigning this to accept the County judgeship. He has made an especially able jurist and his record on the bench is an enviable one. "Few, if any, have reason to be grateful to him for a chance to make good in the world."

Judge Shinn has had a long legal practice and is said to be fully qualified to try respect for this important office.

There has been considerable squabbling in the Democratic ranks of the County over this appointment. Two delegations visited the Governor and urged him to appoint Shinn, Henry W. Lewis, a well-known Democratic lawyer and city solicitor of Pleasantville, was also a candidate for the appointment and had considerable backing. It was claimed that the Democratic County Committee had endorsed Lewis, but the Shinn men disputed this claiming that not all of the committee were present when the vote was taken and that therefore the endorsement was not regular.
