MUCH WORK FOR COURTS DURING OCTOBER TERM

GRAND JURY PROBING Al-LEGED LAWBREAKING.

Inquest Headed by Capt. John L Young One of the Best Ever Drawn in Atlantic County—Attendance Unusually Large.

There is much work ahead in all the branches of the County Courts for the October Term, which opened Wednesday last before Supreme Court Justice Thomas W. Trenchard and associate, Law Judge E. A. Higbee. In the presence of the Court and Sheriff Enoch L. Johnson, Deputy Clerk Albert C. Abbott empanelled the Grand Jury, one of the best ever drawn in Atlantic County, County Clerk-Samuel Kirby being absent through illness, Deputy Abbott administered the oath to the foreman, Capt. John L. Young, and to the members of the jury.

The main court-room was taxed to its utmost capacity by the throngs of jurors, lawyers, witnesses and others, when Justice Trenchard delivered his charge to the Grand Jury. Justice Trenchard instructed the Grand in the Local Option movement. Jury not to adjourn finally at the completion of its investigations but to remain in readiness for a recall if the public good shall so

Justice Trenchard canvassed the list of cases in the Civil Courts and the sessions of that department will open Tuesday next before Judge Allen B. Endicott. Law Judge Higbee hold a short session of the Opphans' Court, ranted several liquor licenses and adjourned Criminal Court until Tuesday next when the trials of those already indicted by the Grand Jury will begin.

After a brief deliberation Thursday morning the Jury adjourned at noon until Tuesday

WILL IMPROVE LENAPE PARK. Popular Resort on the Lake Had a Prosperous Season.

Only three years old, Leiling's Lenape Park on the banks of beautiful Lake Lenape has become the most popular inland playground in South Jersey. The past season was a prosperous one and the proprietor, Lorenz Leiling, is already planning further attractions for next Summer. New games and diversions are being considered and a "shoot-theshute" may be built.

The skating rink will be kept open every Saturday evening during the Fall and Winter. It will be well heated and made comfortable for patrons. Arrangements are also being made for dancing.

Boom Your Home Town.

"Good citizens always have a good word to say for their home town," says Gov. Hughes of New York. "They know its good points, and if there are other peculiarities, they do not present them. The grumbler who knowns all the bad features of a town and mentions them at every opportunity is not only a poor citizen, but he is one who does nothing to improve the town he lives in. It is good enough to provide a home for him and perhaps a place of business, or an occupation, but that is forgotten in the general flow of complaint. Every resident car do something for the betterment of his town. If he cannot improve property for lack of means or ownership, he can at least keep his own home neat and clean. He can have a clean yard, a grass plot or something to add to the appearance of the place, and above all he can say a word for the place at every opportunity.

WEDDED, THIRTY-EIGHT YEARS.

So Friends and Relatives Gave Mr and Mrs. M. R. Morse a Surprise.

Thirty-eight years ago last Saturday, in 1871, Mr. and Mrs. Mell. R. Morse, married at four o'clock in the morning, left May's Landing on the stage coach at five to catch a train at Egg Harbor City to depart on their wedding tour. There was no railroad through May's anding then so, in order to catch the train seven miles away they were obliged to hold the ceremony at daylight and to partake of a Trenton Magazine Says Town hasty wedding breakfast.

No doubt those happy hours were vividly recalled by Mr. and Mrs. Morse Monday last when a number of relatives and intimate friends gave them a surprise party in memory of the event. The visitors brought many tempting viands and refreshments, arriving from Atlantic City and Pleasantville on the nine o'clock express and spending the day at the caption of "May's Landing Renaissance, the Morse home. People from Atlantic City and other places in many instances came to join in the pleasure of the evening but never left the cars owing to the heavy downpour.

The appearance of Somers Street is being enhanced by stone curbing, after which the road will be regraded. Capt. Samuel E. Perry is one of the staunchest advocates of civic improvement along the Shore Road. His residence is one of most attractive along the coast. Residents are interested in the projected short cut of the West Jersey railroad from Ocean City to May's Landing. The course of Board of Trade and residents of this place the road will include Somers Point, English Creek and several small County towns.

Severe Restrictions for Deer Hunting, When the deer season opens this Fall, every Wednesday in November, hunters will be greatly restricted by the new law. Some of these restrictions are as follows: No doe or fawn can be killed under a penalty of $100; no rifle can be used, or any firearm or shotgun of a smaller calibre than a twelve-guage; no bullets or missiles other than buckshot can be used under a penalty of $500; deer cannot be hunted at night, or with dogs, under a penalty of $100. In addition to these provisions, no person will be permitted to kill more than one buck deer during the season, and if a gunner is fined for shooting a doe or fawn he cannot afterward shoot a buck. The restrictions are

If May's Landing does not forge ahead cannot be owing to lack of attractions and natural advantages. The fault therefore mus be internal. What are you doing to make your home town more prosperous?

"The world is so full of a number of things. I am sure we should all be as happy as kings." That is a cheerful thought for those who 'have the blues' or who are inclined to be pessimists. Don't get down on your luck: be glad of life, because it gives you the chance to lire and to work and to play. After all, life is worth while.

If there were any doubt in the minds of nonathletic residents that the United States has a national game the crowds that have stormed the base-ball grounds of the metropolitan cities and the interest displayed throughout the country in the championship contests during the past season have dispelled the last uncertainty.

Trespassing on railroads is responsible for a majority of the deaths through accident, say the railroad authorities, who announce their determination to prosecute persons trespassing on their property in the future. The right-ofway of a railroad is private property and the public should respect it as such. Walking the tracks is a dangerous practice that causes thousands of accidents armually.

Unnecessary trouble and expense has been caused throughout the State by that nonsensical enactment of the Legislature better known as the "jag law," which gives commissions the right of prohibiting the sale of 50x59 1-2 ft. Fast side Weymouth Pince, 100 ft liquor to the persons named on their "jaglists." The next Legislature should lose no time in repealing the act and should steer clear in the future of such freak legislation.

"Columbia" would have been a more approprinte name for the continent discovered by Christopher Columbus, but "America" became its designation following the publication of Amerigo Vespucei's account of the new land however, will always be honored as the discoverer of the continent and his name will be remembered when that of Vespucci is forgotten. Columbus, like many another genius, received little honor in his own day and imprisonment was the earthly reward of his great accomplishment, but his name and fame will live for ages. The observance of "Columbus Day" is a fitting tribute to his memory.

Automobile service between towns and cities is being experimented with in Pennsylvania, seems to be practical, for such a service is quick, economical and highly popular. The investment does not cost much and the expense of operation is small compared with trolley service. Such a service established between this municipality and Egg Harbor City ought to pay the investors and would be very convenient. All that would be necessary to open such a service would be the purchase of suitable automobiles that can be relied upon by patrons and the cost of maintaining the machines in good repair. A similar service between Egg Harbor City, Hammonton and other County towns should prove profitable.

Sentiment favoring the establishment of a State Normal School in South Jersey is gaining ground and when the improvements to the teachers' training schools in North Jersey are completed and the State exchequer is replenished the project may be realized. We need a Normal School here in this part of the State and it is only a question of time when from outside the State because there is a lack of facilities for training them at home. A new Normal School in South Jersey would awaken the ambitions of young men and women and supply all the schools with efficient instructors from our own State. The ideal location for 30x268 ft. Southwest side Leeds Ave. 403.65 ft. such a school, convenient from all parts of Northwest of Shore Road, $2,100. South Jersey, with surroundings suitable to such an institution and healthful for the pupils, is right here in May's Landing.

Newspapers are too often criticised for not antville Land Co. $150. printing all the news. That is one of their best traits. If an editor gave publicity to everything that happened in his community, told all the gossip, paraded the shortcomings of his home town and the faults of frail humanity there would be an end to the good infinence Att'y. of his journal. Evil news travels fast and needs no aid in its circulation, especially when so much in the best of towns. A capacious on; 15 per cent, when walls are up ready for the roof; 90 per cent, when roof in on; 29 per editorial waste-basket is one of the best aids to cent, when building is plastered; 50 per cent, municipal progress in existence.

OUT OF THE TRENCH.

By F. A. MITCHEL. (Copyright, 1909, by American Press Asso-

A few years after the civil war two men met on Broadway, New York. The one wore the long hair and sombrero that marked him for a southerner; the other was black as the ace of spades.

"Fo' de Lawd, Marse Geo'ge!" exclaimed the negro, with eyes and mouth open wide.

"Ben, yo' black rascal, what are you doing up here in Yankee land?"

"Wha' I doin' up hyar? I wouldn' be hyar if you war alive!"

"But I am alive." "Don' know 'bout dat. Spec' yo' may be yo' ghos'. How come yo' be living when de fambly all tink yo' was killed at de battle o' Sharpsbu'g? If yo' be livin', how 'bout dat awful rakedown I got from Missy Alice?"

"What rakedown?" "Mebbe yo' don' know dat when yo' go off to de wah an' 1 go with you orstensnately to take keer o' yo' hoss I war really set up to go by Missy Alice fo' to take keer o' yo'self, specially if yo' got sick or wounded. De night befo' de regiment marched away Missy Alice she come to my cabin an' she say, 'Ben, yo' infernal niggah' "-

"Oh, no, she didn't." "Well, enny way, she said: 'Ben, I's mighty glad 50' goin' with 50' Marse Geo'ge. If he sick or wounded yo' write me ebery day.' 'I cain't write, Missy Alice,' I says. And she says, says she: Well, get some one else to write fo' yo' or send me word if he needs me and I'll come mighty quick to nu'se him. If yo' stick to him an' bring him back safe an' soun' to me I'll see that yo' git yo' freedom.'. An' I says: 'Missy Alice, I don't keer 'bout my freedom. I don' want my freedom. I's allus lived in this fambly an' don' want to live anywhere else. But I'll watch Marse Geo'ge fo' yo' an' let yo' know if he needs nussin'. I don' promise to bring him back safe an' soun' to yo', but if he gits killed or dies o' camp fevah or any o' them sojers' diseases I promise yo' on my wo'd o' honah as a Turnoir nigga' dat hasn't nevah belonged to no udder fambly buryin' ground.' "Den Missy Alice she say, 'Ben, yo's deblish fine niggah' "-

fambly dat I'll bring his body back fo'

50' to weep ovah an' be buried in de

"No, she didn't, but go on." "She say, says she: 'Ben, I b'lleve you'. If yo' do dat I neber fo'git it. But if yo' don' bring him back either libin' or dead yo'd bettah nevah been bo'n.' How come yo' up hyar in New Yo'k, Marse Geo'ge, when yo' war killed-I mean missin'-in de battle o' Sharpsbu'g, an' yo' cunnel said yo' body was throwed into de trench?" "Go on with your story. Never mind my part of it"

"I bunted dat battlefield all ovah, turpin' ebery man layin' on his face, even de Yanks, and I didn' see yo' nowhar, Marse Géo'ge. Den de cunnel he sent an orderly fo' me an' he say: 'Ben, yo' mastah he been killed, an' de trench. Yo' go home an' tell his people 'bout it. Wha' he know 'bout me an' dat I war a Turnoir niggah?" "I asked him to do all that. Go on.

I'm anxious to hear the rest." "Yo' tell him to do dat? Wha' fo' yo' do dat, Marse Geo'ge?" "I'll tell you my story when you get through with yours. Go on, I say."

"My story's nudin mo' 'n de drubbin' I got from Missy Alice. I went home to de plantation one mornin', and Missy Alice she saw me comin' ?wayup de road. She flied out of de house an' run to me, out o' bref, an' she An' I breaked it sofly to her. I says, says I: 'Marse Geo'ge, he wha' he don' suffah no mo', Missy Alice. 'Deed he don't.' 'Wha' is he?' she moaned, stagge'n back. 'In de trench,' I say. 'Dey throwed him in befo' I could git

"Fo' de Lawd, Marse Geo'ge, though I broke de news as sofly as I knew how, she jis' drop right down wha' she stan' with a shivah. 'I helped her up an' toted her into de house. Den when she come to herself she said. with a voice dat sounded lak a ha'nt in de tomb: 'Ben, go 'way from me faction an' doan' let me evah see yo' ag'in. Yo's been onfaithful to de trus' I reposed in yo'. Go 'way, you deblish tipped his hat, "Excuse me, gentleniggah! Yo'"-

"Hold on, there! Don't put words you said to yourself into her pure zine.

"Yes, Marse Geo'ge, I said 'em, a heap of 'em-wo'se an' wo'se. An' I turned roun', as de men do when de battery's sendin' out shot an' shell an' grape in their faces, an' I lef' de plantation, an' I hain't nebber been back dar frum dat day to this. An' I suffered all this on yo' account. An' yo' wasn't in de trench atter all. What deblish bad luck!"

"Ben," said the other, much affected, "you're hit it exactly. It would have been better if I had been put into the trench. I was stupid enough to become the victim of a diabolical story. There was another girl-well, I was engaged to be married to her long before-who wrote me that a Yankee off! cer who had come down with the Fedcer who had come down with the Federal army had taken my place. After Sharpsburg I got my colonel to send you back with the story that I had cause wherein rances s. Kelm is complainant, and you and others are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the complainant's bill on or before the thirteenth day of December, next, or the said bill will be taken as confessed but I'd rather been Missy Alice than myself. Marse Geo'ge, 50' go right back to de ole plantation an' tell Missy Alice 'twar all yo' fault. Tell her yo' a liar an' I a might' fine niggah." "l'll do it, Ben, and I'll take you with me." The Largest Grapevine.

The largest grapevine in the world is 120 years old and is at San Gabriel, Cal., planted by Franciscan friars. The stalk is one and a half feet in diameter and eight feet high, and the branches and foliage cover an area of 5,000 square feet. Its average crop of grapes is two and a half tons yearly. It forms the summer dining place of the San Gabriel hotel.
