WHOLE NUMBER 1785.

WHITE INDICTED FOR ELECTION CORRUPTION

NEW GRAND JURY PROBES A LITTLE DEEPER.

Barlow, Buzby, Mathis, Jeffries and Terry Implicated in Third Ward Conspiracy Charge With "Fusion" Leader.

Daniel H. White, "fusion" nominee for Mayor of Atlantic City, was indicted this week by the October Grand Jury, which probed a little deeper into alleged election irregularities, together with Overseers of the Poor Harry Barlow, Connellman Walter J. Buzby, Samuel Jeffries, Dr. E. B. Terry and ex-Councilman Charles Mathis, for conspiracy to pervert the result of the 1910 election in the Third Ward. In the sum of $2,000 each was entered by White, Barlow and Terry before Judge Higbee and the others will plead later.

Order for a new trial was granted by Judge Higbee Monday to Mrs. Ray Violet Miller, sent to Trenton to face a charge of passing worthless checks aggregating several hundreds of dollars to merchants in Pleasantville and Atlantic City. She was given a month in which to make restitution but failed to do so and after Judge Higbee sentenced her to one year was sent to Trenton by Sheriff E. L. Johnson. It appears that someone has made good for all the checks and in view of this, coupled with the woman's declaration that she could repay the money if given time, the court allowed the motion for a new trial.

Bench warrants were issued in several cases Monday where the defendants failed to appear in court. Arcadio Vincenzo, an Italian, was one of those apprehended and given his ex parte that he did not know where to appear to plead. Not having a bondman, he was committed to jail to await trial. He was tried Tuesday and acquitted. Chauncey Robinson was also apprehended on a bench warrant. Edward Powell, who appeared on the opening day of court to plead and entered bail, failed to appear for trial and the bond was declared forfeited, a bench warrant being issued for the defendant.

Charles Johnson, a young negro, pleaded guilty to stealing a pair of opera glasses. Having been before the court on other charges, Judge Higbee deemed it time to put a halt to his pilfering and sent him to the Reformatory at Haddon.

Charles Miller, formerly employed on a beachfront pier as porter, was convicted Tuesday of stealing a card case which had been dropped through a crevice on the pier to the beach below and which he was asked to find. He denied that he found the case, but a witness was produced who saw him pick it up and a verdict of guilty was returned by the jury.

Pleading guilty to stealing chickens and throwing himself on the mercy of the court, Oscar Knekel, a deaf mute, was released under suspended sentence.

Samuel McIlvane, arraigned Tuesday on a charge of unlawful conversion, was acquitted after a trial that took up the attention of the court for several hours. The young man was bartender at the Hotel Schiller and testified that the money he was accused of having illegally appropriated to his private use was a matter of fact.

Indictments were returned by the October Grand Jury against John J. O'Connell, of Atlantic City, and John J. O'Connell, of Hammonton, for murder. Both defendants have been confined in the County Jail since their arrest last June and were brought into court, where in response to the indictments, read by Prosecutor Goldenberg, they each entered a plea of not guilty. After conference with counsel for the defendants, Justice Kalkch announced that the case would be set down for trial on December 14 and the O'Connells will be moved the second Wednesday in January.

Mr. Peck is charged with the murder of her husband, Charles S. Peck, of Atlantic City, last May. Patrolman, an Italian, is charged with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Katrina Patroli, at their home in Hammonton.

At Thursday's session, Walter Hildebrand, a busman, was found guilty of an assault on a trolley conductor and William Joddy was convicted of stealing clothing.

Judge Higbee announced an adjournment until November 13, but may hold a "sentence day" session next week.

Will Award Prizes.
Manager J. D. Hoover of the "movies" issued tickets to every person who attended the show last evening and will give them out again this evening for the purpose of awarding a prize to the holder of the lucky one. Names are to be written on the slips and handed in and a drawing will take place to-night. If the ticket drawn is that of a lady, a silver purse will be awarded; if a gentleman, a silver shirt and if a child a watch. One of the pictures taken by Lubin's "Camp" last Summer will be shown to-night and next Wednesday afternoon there will be a free matinee for children.

The installation of the Rev. Robert Bramfitt at the Whitestone Presbyterian Church, Long Island, N. Y., took place on October 19. Four ministers assisted in the service. Rev. and Mrs. Bramfitt are now residing at No. 21 1/2th Street, Whitestone, and his many friends here extend best wishes for a great success in his new field of labor.

LLOYD HEARS CIVIL CASES

Camden Judge Took Golden Rule Here This Week.

Judge Frank Lloyd, of Camden, presiding here this week for Judge C. C. Cole in cases in which the latter was formerly interested as counsel, disposed of a number of cases. No more civil cases will be held until late in November.

Suing for the value of a consignment of oriental rugs, Neume Castell was awarded a verdict for the full amount Thursday against Washed Jordan. The latter lost them through an express company whom he will sue in turn for redress.

After nearly two days trial, the suit of Mary McDevitt against the Suburban Railway, for damages received in an accident on the Old Shore Road when a trolley crashed into an auto and threw her out, was settled out of court and the trial discontinued.

Suit of Dr. Emory Marvel against Mrs. Catherine Marvel, before Judge Lloyd, resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff. The action was brought to settle a dispute over the ownership of a strip of land near Indiana and Pacific Avenues only two and four-tenths feet wide, which each of the parties to the issue claimed. The controversy has been pending before the courts for a number of years and it is understood an agreement has been made between them whereby Dr. Marvel retains the land, Thompson & Amstrong defend the suit, with Bourgeois & Condon for the plaintiff.

The suit of Mrs. Josephine Rye Thompson versus Lorenzo Rye, in ejectment, was discontinued. The suit involved three properties near Virginia and Atlantic Avenues in which there has arisen a dispute as to ownership, the plaintiff claiming that under the provisions of the will of the late Joseph Rye she is made a tenant in common, while the defendant contends that he holds title alone.

A verdict for $12,215.25 was returned Wednesday in the suit of Edward L. Rador, contractor, against the Consumers Gas Company, for labor and material furnished to the company. The defendant company claimed that the Kent Construction Company had contracted for the work, but it was shown that this corporation acted as agent for the Consumers.

FIRE COMPANY MEETING.

Members Must Show More Interest in Order to Maintain Standard.

Although there were several matters of great importance to be considered at the meeting of the Atlantic City Fire Company Wednesday evening last and notices had been sent out to every member, only eight answered roll-call, just one more than a quorum. The officers say that it will be necessary for the members to show more interest by attending meetings and otherwise in order to maintain the standard of efficiency in the company and keep insurance rates down.

On motion it was decided to give notice for the November meeting that all members not attending in ten months and not present at that meeting be dropped from the roll of the company and the officers will endeavor to awaken interest in the organization. The matter of a supper and smoker after the meeting in November was discussed and will probably be acted on favorably.

It was decided to establish "fire lines" in the municipality in order to secure a greater percentage on premiums from insurance companies. The committee appointed to purchase new apparatus was also instructed to secure additional equipment for which an appropriation was made. It was also decided to hold an early date so members can secure benefits.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

Republican League Smoker and Rally Marked by Fair Discussion of Campaign Issues and Intelligent Appeal for Support.

An interesting and enthusiastic Republican rally and smoker was held Tuesday evening last under the auspices of the Hamilton Township Republican League in the May's Landing Opera House, the speakers being the Hon. Walter E. Edge, State Senator, and G. Arthur Bolle, former Assistant Prosecutor of Atlantic County. A feature of the evening was a concert by the May's Landing Glee Club, which rendered a number of splendid selections in a manner that drew forth applause and flattering comment from the visitors as well as League members.

A highly interesting address that called forth bursts of applause from the hundred and twenty-five guests of the evening, Senator Edge, reviewing the success of the Republican Party in the past with propriety for the working man and depicting the result of "free trade" policies of the Democrats pointed out the urgent need of supporting the Party of Protection this year. He awakened recollections of the last Democratic administration, when factories were closed and general hard times resulted from the application of a "free trade" policy advocated by New Jersey Democrats, and showed the necessity of building a reputation of those dark days by electing Republicans to the State Legislature, to County offices and down to the local offices and insuring continued protection and prosperity.

Referring to Governor Wilson's taking credit for new laws enacted last Winter by the Legislature, Senator Edge, who was one of the strongest supporters of progressive measures in the Senate, revealed the injustice of Wilson's claims and showed how the Republican Senate was not only directly responsible for most of the legislation, but went so far as to amend the Democratic measures and whip them into practical form.

Mr. Bolle's address, which preceded that of Senator Edge, was right to the point as in a convincing manner he urged upon his hearers the need of strong Republican support this year. Referring to "Bols" generally, Republican candidate for Sheriff, he said this candidate should receive the unanimous support of his home town and township and predicted a sweeping victory all over the County. Taking up each Republican candidate, he reviewed their qualifications for office and wound up by asking every Republican to interest himself individually in the success of the entire Republican ticket.

It was surely one of the most interesting meetings ever held here by the League and in contrast with certain other public meetings held throughout the County which have been notable for fault-finding, abuse and vilification, the honest, open and fair-minded manner in which the campaign issues and candidates were discussed appealed to everyone present. It was generally remarked that there should be more such meetings, based on fair, reasonable argument and intelligent appeal to voters for their support.

APOSTLE OF FREE TRADE

Wilson Playing Game of Politics For All There Is In It—The Effect of Next Election Will Be Far-Reaching.

Branding Governor Woodrow Wilson as an avowed apostle of free trade and urging upon the citizens of New Jersey the need of party unity in the coming election, the "State Gazette," of Trenton, suggests a word of warning to American laborers in the following editorial, which we commend to every voter for careful reading.

While one purpose of Governor Wilson in making a talking tour of the State may be to give the people an account of his stewardship, he undoubtedly has another purpose, and it is to induce the people to elect to the Senate and House of Assembly, Democrats.

He has said that one of the best habits that a man can get into is to vote a non-partisan ticket, but there is reason for doubting his sincerity in making that declaration, because he has told us that he has never voted other than the Democratic ticket, and hopes that he never will.

While urging Democrats to stand by their party and their ticket, he is encouraging Republicans to break away from party affiliations and from party nominees.

The effect of the elections next month will reach further, perhaps, than the average Republican thinks it will. Governor Wilson is a candidate for the nomination for president of the United States, and he is extremely anxious to have at his back a friendly legislature which will assist him in his efforts to strengthen his candidacy.

He is playing the game of politics for all that there is in it, and there is more than one reason why he should be checked. He is an avowed apostle of free trade, and, in the event of his election to the presidency, would lend all the powerful influence that goes with that office to the establishment of the free trade policy.

We are of the opinion that the people of New Jersey want none of this, and the way to check a free trade is to begin fighting it as soon as it breaks out.

Governor Wilson, by virtue of his office and of his position as head of the Democratic party, has placed the Republicans on the defensive, and it is their duty to accept this fact and fight back.

In their principles and policies they have something worth fighting for. There is no reason why they should go before the people with apologies. Their administration of the affairs of the State has been honest and economical. Their actions have been above board, and they have accomplished much of which they may reasonably be proud.

ELISORS LIKE GUILLOTINE.
Wildwood "Sun" Reflects On Situation in Atlantic County.

If we were of a poetic disposition we would compare the following gleam of truth from the Wildwood "Sun" with the rays of Old Sol, which seek out dark places and reveal the truth; but our eyes are not "in a fine feury rolling" and we will submit the "Sun's" trenchant comment forthwith:

"Tony Veller, it will be remembered, was a firm believer in the alibi. He had witnessed a criminal case in court where the defendant, REYNOLDS, was charged with the murder of a man named for all ill. When Pickwick, his master, was sued for breach of promise by a somewhat decayed but designing widow and was thrown into prison, Tony beseeched him, with tears in his eyes, to 'prove an alibi' and walk forth a free man. If Tony were living to-day and was cognizant of recent Atlantic County court proceedings his faith in the alibi would be rudely shattered. If not totally destroyed. A young man in Atlantic City was charged with violating the provisions of the corrupt practice act by electioneering at the polls, and with further having met and conferred with so-called 'conspirators' in the back room of a certain saloon on election day. At his trial the young man proved that he was not at the polls more than ten or fifteen minutes, or just long enough to vote, and he proved this by the opposition candidate for council in the ward, as well as by other reputable citizens who were opposed to him politically. He proved that he was not in the room mentioned in the indictment during the day—proved his whereabouts during the entire day, excepting at the dinner hour, and he proved by his neighbors that he went to his dinner and returned at his usual time. But the jury declared him guilty, just the same. Judging from such proceedings, one is forced to the conclusion that persecution has taken the place of prosecution in Atlantic County, and it is a dangerous thing. History oftentimes repeats itself, and the error, like the guillotine, may yet be turned against those who have sought its questionable aid."

Teach Children To Save
Did you ever think how well it would have been for you if you were taught to save when a child?
Instead of giving your child money for candy, etc., why not make it much better for them and you, by teaching them to deposit their pennies at 3 per cent. interest in the FIRST National Bank, of May's Landing.
The same careful attention is given to small deposits as others. Deposit a dollar for the boy or girl and get a small savings bank.
