REPUBLICANS CARRY STATE LEGISLATURE

the Considerations as Shown by al. 13.8x65 ft. North side Fairmount Ave. 42 ft. WILSON REPUDIATED -BY OWN PARTY.

> and Wrested Control of Assembly From Democrats - Majority 15 On Joint Ballot.

New Jersey Republicans, fighting against great odds, won a hard-carned victory at the polls throughout the State last Tuesday, wresting control of the Senate and Assembly from the Democrats and repudiating Governor Woodrow Wilson, who stumped the State in the Assembly 37 to Ziln favor of the Republicans, with a Republican insjority of 15 on Joint ballot. Cariton Godfrey and Emerson Richards, Republican candidates in this County, were elected by big majorities. The Democratic candidates, who said on the stump throughout the County that their only desire was to be elected to aid Wilson, received a severe rebuke. The only Congressional fight in the State West side Winchesler Ave. DOUR. South was in the First District, comprising the countles of Camden, Gloucester and Balem, and it was won by William J. Browning, Republican, of Camden, over his Democrat oppoment, Thomas M. Ferrell, of Gloucester. t, Northwest of Burf Ave, $550.

William H. Carroll to Harriett E. Bruck-Browning succeeds life late Henry C. Louden-man, 30x82.5 ft. East side Troy Ave. 170 ft. East slager, who was Republican Representative from the District.

The story of the legislative returns shows that the Progressive Republicans returned to the party and turned away from Wilson in those counties in which they repudiated their own party and supported Wilson last Pall; In Mercer County, the home of Governor Wilson, his Assembly candidates were all defeated and three Republicans elected,

Republican victory in Township, County and State is not only a repudiation of Wilsonism, but a vindication as well of the Grand Corkle, 40x62.5 ft. East side Oakland Avc. 100 ft. Old Party and the policies that have made and maintained it the leading factor in New Jersey politics. Wilson decried bossism, and deliberately set about bossing the people into voting for his candidates, with the result that was to be expected from such tactics. The people of New Jersey are normally Republican; they have confidence in their party and party leaders and they will coutinue to give it their support, especially when great issues are at
