

EVILDOERS CONVICTED
GRAND JURY ADJOURNSWILL MEET TO MAKE FINAL
PRESENTMENT.Inquest Handed In Batch of Bills
Thursday To Judge Higbee—
Elwood Powell Found Guilty Of Assault and Battery.

Two sessions of the Atlantic County Criminal Court were held this week, on Wednesday and Thursday, Judge E. A. Higbee presiding, and a number of cases disposed of, Court adjourning Thursday afternoon until next Tuesday. The regular October Grand Jury met Thursday and after a brief session handed in a batch of bills. These were withheld from publication at the request of Prosecutor C. L. Goldenberg in order that the persons indicted may be apprehended and placed in jail Tuesday next.

The Grand Jury adjourned to meet December 14, when Judge Samuel Kitchin will sit here, and at that time will likely make its final presentment. The bills returned Thursday, it is said, were for numerous petty crimes, and the jury has completed all the work presented to it for investigation to the present time.

Sentence was suspended Wednesday on George Shiner and David Conover, charged with stealing lumber from the Atlantic City Lumber Co. Following the presentation of the State's case, Judge Higbee permitted the defendants to withdraw their pleas of not guilty and plead no vult. The uncontradicted evidence of the State was that the men, who were employed to haul lumber for the company, put more lumber on their wagons than their orders called for and left it at their homes, the theft being discovered by a detective who followed them and discovered Shiner putting lumber on his home. Judge Higbee was asked to extend the trial to the next day, but the State's case was so strong that the judge refused to do so.

Elwood Powell was found guilty Wednesday after a brief trial of assault and battery on George Lohr at Pleasantville. The indictment against Powell charged atrocious assault with intent to kill, but the evidence did not bear out the allegation beyond the fact that Powell struck the complainant. Lohr had been working under Powell's direction at Pleasantville and on the evening of the assault occurred, asking him for his wages. Powell said he would pay him when he received the money. Beyond this their stories differed, Lohr contending that Powell struck him with intent to provoke and the defendant alleging that he acted in self-defense.

Frank Lee and Edward Buck, both indicted by the October Grand Jury on charges of assault and battery, appeared Wednesday to enter pleas of not guilty and were held under $300 bail for trial. Sheppard Hart, indicted with three other former employees of the Steel Plant, Atlantic City, for larceny of tickets and money, appeared to plead guilty and was released under suspended sentence. The sum he was wanted to have stolen was only thirty cents, and as he had a previous good record and a family was dependent upon his work for support Judge Higbee allowed him to go on good behavior.

Only two cases were tried Thursday, verdicts of acquittal being returned in each instance and Court adjourned until Tuesday. The first case tried was that of Frank Lee, of Seaside, charged with assault and battery on Samuel Scull. The alleged assault grew out of an argument started on primary election day, when the defendant was alleged to have invited "go out in a boat beyond the law and the real fight took place a few days later. Lee was returning from a gunning party, loaded down with his gun, and while taking his wheel, Scull said to him, "Let us give thanks," the person said, as the Turkey gobble his head. Quite a number of visitors are coming to May's Landing Thursday.

DOWN FROM MOTORCYCLE.

Young Riders Had Narrow Escape From Serious Injury.

Returning to their home in Atlantic City from this place Monday evening last, Edward and Rose Steelman, children of James Steelman, of Atlantic City, were thrown from the motorcycle on which they were riding and sustained painful but not serious injuries. The machine was badly wrecked and they were obliged to return to this place and take the late train for home.

Steelman is not certain just how the accident happened, but says he was not running fast. He attributes it partially to two causes, insufficient light and a quick turn in the road with which he was unfamiliar. Just after leaving Hager Hill he turned down his gas light, which he thought was burning too freely, and turned it too low. Both have been confined to their homes during the week.

INJURED AT GLASS WORKS.

Second Mishap Due To Carelessness In Slipping Belt On Machine.

A second accident within a few weeks occurred Tuesday morning last at the May's Landing Cut Glass Works, when John Henry, sixteen years old, was badly injured in attempting to slip a belt on one of the machines. His hand was caught and drawn in, winding his arm around the pulley, breaking it in five places and tearing the flesh. Dazed by the accident when he regained consciousness, he jumped up and ran from the factory but was overtaken and rushed to the office of Dr. H. C. James, who dressed his injuries and will save the hand both his arm and hand.

Proprietor Joseph Thorp was grief-stricken over the accident, which seems to have been due to carelessness in slipping the belt on the pulley. The workers are instructed to use a stick provided for the purpose but sometimes carelessly throw the belt on by hand. This was the manner in which another workman a short time ago lost his arm, and stringent rules will be adopted to force the employees to observe caution.

The Weathercock's Musings.

Saw several flocks of wild geese flying Southward this week. Some others not so wild will wish they had gone along in a few days.

"Let us give thanks," the person said, as the Turkey gobble his head. Quite a number of visitors are coming to May's Landing Thursday.

Boats in Winter Quarters.

Owners of motor-boats and sailing craft are placing their boats in winter quarters, as the cold weather has ended the sport for the season. Many are anchoring their craft in protected places along the banks, while others are benching them for protection against the elements.

The lively chugging of motors is over for the year and the engines put to rest for the winter. To be revived with the first warm rays of the sun next Spring.

Moving Gang Kept On Jump.

The "moving gang" has been kept on the jump lately in May's Landing and the work is not yet completed. Immediately after they finished moving the old Shiner's residence to the Catholic Church property they placed rollers under Pratt's Garage and moved that further towards the street and over to the property late. That done, they repaired to John Smith's grocery store, which they are lifting in order to place a higher foundation underneath.

Tax Bank Stock Full Value.

The Court of Errors and Appeals has affirmed the finding of the Supreme Court supporting the contention of the Newark Board of Assessors in valuing bank stock at its market value. The decision of the Court was by a unanimous vote. The decision means a radical departure in the present method of valuing bank stock and will result in most instances in a substantial increase in the taxes derived from its source.

Dawson showed in his report that on January 1st last there were 28,900 members in New Jersey. The total for relief amounts to $156,221 and the total disbursement was $284,043.55. The total assets of the 281 lodges in New Jersey are $1,265,741.14.

Ball Players Take Notice.

It is a crime in Georgia for a baseball player to kill an umpire, even if he is an umpire, and a player who indulged in that little pleasure last summer has just been sentenced to state prison for the offense, sentence being approved by the Court of Appeals. Such drastic action will no doubt tend to discourage umpire killing in the future.

DRAW MURDER PANEL.

Special Talesmen Struck By Court From Which Jury For Trial Of Mrs. Peck Will Be Selected—Case Down For December 18.

In the presence of County Judge E. A. Higbee and County Clerk Samuel Kirby, Sheriff Robert H. Ingersoll Wednesday last drew a special panel of jurors from which a jury will be selected for the trial of Mrs. Emma Peck, colored, indicted for the murder of her husband on the night of May 20 last.

Mrs. Peck, who has retained J. J. Crandall and Isaac H. Nutter as counsel, will endeavor to show that the deed was committed in self-defense. She wounded her husband during a fight and later he died from the injury.

The trial will take place December 14, before Justice Samuel Kitchin. The panel as drawn, has follows:

William Friedlander, Jr., John R. Pratt, John T. Davis, Henry Swendeman, T. George Middleton, Rev. J. B. McQuinn, J. H. Collins, William Morris, Thomas W. Kinnelwood, Robert Schambert, George A. Elvins, Clark Johnson, Ernest A. Lord, George W. Bassett, Robert Harris, Louis J. Pudd, William Zimmerman, Rev. H. R. Hundell, Joseph J. Levy, Joseph Pizal, Henry K. Kewis, William A. Bell, Philip G. Hannum, Robert Abbott, Otto Girdler, Goldy Mathis, Edward Schultz, Charles Rutter, David Nassano, W. L. Ridgeway, Gustav Lehr, Rose T. Irwin, Edward Howney, James White, C. L. Smith, Louis Corbitt, G. O. Martin, J. T. T. Townsend, A. M. Redfield, Samuel Ellis, Joseph Garrick, Frank O. Broder, Louis Bauer, J. R. Ryan, Ernest Dryer, A. Cramer, W. H. Bernhouse and Edward Schultz.

GET RID OF DEATH TRAP.

Cotton Mill Improvements Also Include New Entrance For Office.

Extensive improvements at the cotton mill of the Water Power Company are nearing completion and will make that factory one of the best equipped and most attractive in the State. The new coal pocket, which will permit the tearing down of the old bin near the railroad crossing that has been a death-trap for autoists, is practically completed and the company is now waiting for the railroad to lay in a new switch for unloading coal.

The improvements to the mill proper include a new entrance to the office, which is now being constructed. Wide cement walks have already been laid and a high fence built around the property, greatly enhancing its appearance.

Supt. Charles H. Kears is hoping no pain to place the entire property in the best possible condition and the great improvements made are not only a credit to the mill, its owners and Supt. Kears himself, but to the municipality as well. The property presents an imposing appearance to autoists on the Downtown road, and on entering or leaving the town, which is a great factor in advertising the municipality and its chief industry.

Crowded Houses At Movies.

Crowded houses attend the moving picture shows given three nights weekly in the Opera House. Last Wednesday a matinee was given in the afternoon for children. In order to make room for the "grown-ups" in the evening, when the World's Championship pictures and eight other reels were shown. The new aluminum screen has been put in place and the pictures, beginning next week Manager D. D. Hoover announces that shows will be given Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings instead of Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. To-night the great Panama Canal reel will be exhibited, also one of the "Wild West" pictures taken last summer at this place by Lohr's camp.

State Prison Overcrowded.

The State Prison population has reached high water mark—1,450 prisoners and only 1,300 cells. That makes necessary doubling up of your girls. I will be one of ten to raise the amount necessary to erect this cellery. The cottage will cost $2,500.

The same man also said: "There is no greater work being done for humanity than the psychological and medical research work of the Training School. Only a beginning has been made. It must be pushed as rapidly as possible. It is a privilege to be one of ten to advance this work also, to the amount of $2,500, the coming year."

Here is the man who sees the need of acting now. His proposition is a grand one. Here is an opportunity for you. Will you not be one of the ten? Make it a Thanksgiving offering.

Clergymen Want Low Fares Again.

An informal gathering of representatives of every religious denomination in New Jersey was held at the rooms of the Trenton Inter-church Federation Monday last and steps were taken for a statewide campaign for the restoration of the railroads of the former reduced fares for clergymen, recently withdrawn. A meeting of clergymen throughout the State is to be held in Trenton December 4, when the State Public Utility Commission, which some time ago decided against the ministers, will be asked to reopen the case. If the board refuses to do this, the matter will be taken to the legislature.

JERSEY REPUBLICAN STATE.

Ex-Governor Says People Have Again Entrusted Affairs In Good Hands.

Commenting upon the recent election in New Jersey, former Governor E. C. Stokes, who took an active part in the campaign, points out the fact that New Jersey is a Republican State. He says:

"The outcome of Tuesday clearly indicates that New Jersey was a Wilson rather than a Democratic victory. This year Governor Wilson was not a candidate and the State swung back into the Republican column, so far as the general issues are concerned. Had there been more Republican activity, I believe the victory would have been more pronounced."

"The people have again entrusted the work of legislation to Republican hands, and upon the Republican members of the Legislature devolves the responsibility of carrying out the people's will. The Republican platform marks out the legislative pathway and indicates what the people declared for. The Republicans in the Legislature are the rightful leaders of the people and it is their duty to follow the path to legislative action. If they will meet in informal conference, agree upon their policies and legislative measures, announce them to the people for advice and suggestion, and then pursue a vigorous and constructive legislative program, they would justify the confidence the people have reposed in them."

DEER HUNTERS BAG QUARRY.

Four Bucks Known To Have Been Killed Near Weymouth.

Four buck deer are known to have been killed Wednesday last near Weymouth, the lucky gunners being William N. Mattix, Samuel Harris, Edward and Isaac Hannum. Only one more day remains of the open season, next Wednesday, and a large number of hunters will likely be abroad on that day.

Dr. Walter Abbott, who is a long dweller near Weymouth and tramped it long through the brush by his blood, Clarence Dugan, shot at a buck while sitting in a wagon. He had no shells in his gun when he caught sight of the animal and by the time he shot it was bounding away through the heavy brush.

Down On The Farm.

Going to the shoveler by roads with smooth shoes may ruin your best hope.

Judge me by how you treat your beauty, but by the way she does her duty.

Do not try to win the cows without grain. Wheat bran, corn-meal and oil-meal will be found valuable.

Now is a good time to supply the stock with some green stuff, such as cabbage or roots of any kind. This latter can be cut in half, and the hens will then pick them to pieces.

Take the frost out of your griddlestone before you grind the ax, but do it gradually, and not by using too hot water. That would injure the quality of the stone.

You may find the food your hens can possibly use, but if you are short of grit, the results will not be satisfactory.

Drinks in the chicken's home are more dangerous when the fowls are quiet on the roost than when stirring around during the day; but a cold air current sweeping through the house is a bad thing at any time.

Don't put off till Spring any outside work that can be done now. Clean up the garden, haul out manure, and when possible rush the plowing before now.

With the beginning of winter there is less work for the horse, and he stands idle in the stable sometimes for days together. To avoid scratches, keep the legs of the horse free from mud, and the stalls clean and dry.

While waiting impatiently for the township to repair that mud-hole, washout or other bad place in the highway, wouldn't it be a good idea to take a few hours off and fix it yourself? If every farmer spent a few hours, occasionally, working on the road, the highways would soon show a decided improvement.

Board of Health Opposed To Repeal of Drinking Cup Law.

Any attempt during the coming session of the legislature to repeal the law passed last Winter abolishing public drinking cups will meet with strenuous opposition from the State Board of Health. The officials of the board declare that the law is a good one, that it is a step in the right direction and should remain on the statute book. An amendment is suggested compelling railroad companies to provide free of charge individual drinking cups for their trains. Most of the objection to the law is said to have arisen from the fact that no drinking cups were installed upon railroad trains last summer. Massachusetts compels railroad companies to provide, without cost to patrons, individual drinking cups, and under this provision there has been no further opposition to the law in that State.

Vineland Training School Needs Help.

A friend visiting the Training School at Vineland said: "Yes, you need another small cottage to relieve the crowded condition of your girls. I will be one of ten to raise the amount necessary to erect this cellery. The cottage will cost $2,500."

The same man also said: "There is no greater work being done for humanity than the psychological and medical research work of the Training School. Only a beginning has been made.
