He had a days, Mr. Beecher. Folks couldn't get great many enemies, but he had also some good friends in Texas who knew he had been lied about, and he charged me to tell the truth about him.

A Tree With a History

When the lot at the corner of Elm and Orange streets, New Haven, formerly the property of Charles Atwater, was purchased by Mr. Joseph Parker. a large Elm tree which had been standing on it was cut down. This old Elm was an old landmark, having been planted by Rev. Joseph Noyes, who succeeded, in 1716, Rev.
