WHAT I CAN DO WITHOUT.

Twas a lonely little homestead, the home of ploneers, On the wide open prairie, where passed my sarly years; Bometimes on the threshold harvests with plenty filled the bin, And sometimes on the threshold Bard Times stood peering in Then serious discussions of ways and means occurred.
To be finally concluded by my father's cheery word. "Whatever we may do without, whatever we may get, There's one thing that is certain; we can do without's debt."

Twas a bit of homely wisdom, with a touch of honest pride, Through good or evil fortune it was never set aside; Many summers, many winters, with their shadows and their sun, With their happy days and and days, have vanished one by one; Time and Change, the unrelenting, swept the little home away, The open, lonesome prairie in a fruitful field to day,

But the voices of the homestead, I can hear their echoes yet, And what may come or not come, I can do without a debt. Woman's Home Companion.

Suggested Needed Improvements to Court House.

At the final meeting of the old County Board of Freeholders held at Atlantic City Tuesday Law Judge Higher addressed the lolons on the necessity of making extensive mprovements to the County Court House. In the course of his remarks, Judge Highee tated that the Court House is badly in need of immediate alterations and repairs, enumerating as some of the changes, the installation of hat racks for the use of the jurymen. a lavatory inside the building and in fact the entire rearrangement of the interior of the structure in order to facilitate the disposition of the volume of law husiness that is transcted within its walls.

The Judge stated further that Supreme Court Justice Swayze had made a number of recommendations that would be well to carry out without more delay than can be avoided Judge Highee said also that the postponemen of the making of repairs with the idea that eing transferred to Atlantic City was not to be sanctioned for the simple reason that it may be years before that much discussed proposition is effected, if it ever is accomantic Avenua, Atlantic City, N. J.-Adv. Vice Chancellor Grey in Camden Thursday refused a motion to dissoire an injunction obtained by Allen C. Middleton against John L. Young. The injunction is to restrain Young from interfering with the operation of a ministure railway on Young's Pier. The motion to dissolve was raised upon the formality of precedent in filing affidavits. After hearing the argument the motion was denied for lack of proper notice. Rufus Booye, Jr., son of Water Commissioner Booye, Monday, wrecked his automohile, which had refused to respond to the brakes, by turning it sharply and overturning the machine to avoid collision with another auto, which had come to a stop. In the other machine Dr. R. A. Sharp was scated. Boore's auto missed the stationary machine by a few inches. Booye and his chauffeur were bruised, but not seriously hurt. Farmingdale, Pastor of the Church in 264-6, a period of six days. An experienced chaper and known as its Father, being the oldest living pastor by priority of appointment. He is now in his 84th year and yet bale and hearty and . ble to preach as well as he ever did, at least so he tells us in his letter of soceptance, and states that he will make this sermon the climan of his efforts in that line as he thinks it will be the last he will ever preach in "Old Friendship." Come and Jear this venerable servant of God, give him the inspiration of a large audience, and cheer his brave old heart by your presence. "For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ yet have ye not many fathers." A message to the friends of the Old Church These very sees are gotten up to testify our gratitude to God, to praise and bless His hely name, to try to give His cause and service an npilit in this seminality, to help us and all who participate to a higher plane of Christian experience, to a greater faith, to brighter hopes, and a firmer grapp on all the promises of God. No considerations of a worldly or discools nort enter this it for we have no debt and have me occasion to ask assistance. Were maything of that kind, and though we whall take up a collection at each service, we shall not importunc and shall be well sails Sel if the offerings cashie us to defray the expenses of the constitut. So come friends us in your prayers sind ask that we all may receive a Stanting on this occasion.
