IN MY DREAMS.

From the Billade, from the red road, from the rolling waste of plain;

In my drames I often hear them; hear the far off voices calling

In my draams I offen see it, see the dear old shanty standing,

And I often hear the voices of the sturdy station children,

With the brier scented presses playing round the open door

Kind of little shedow children in the middle of the road; And I guess that they are waiting for the teamster and his wagon

Shadow plains roll out before me with a mob of cattle charging.

And I hear the yeiping brindle as he turns them on the rise;

Nothing great, nor grand, nor gaudy, but a quaint old wooden building. Just a kind of way back tavern and a sort of way back store.

And the dear old loony bullocks with their precions border load.
