- Green grass scatters red ants.
- Court meets on Tuesday next.
- Straw hats are flickering out.
- Atlantic City contains 600 acres.
- The oyster season has fairly opened.
- Very few thunder storms this season.
- Atlantic county contains 248,764 acres.
- Chew Jackson's Best Navy Tobacco.
- Next year we shall have seven eclipses.
- The "last rose of summer" is now in order.

Excursions to Lakeland Park still continue.

The back-bone of summer has been broken.

Spring chickens are selling for 18 cents a pound.

The States in Atlantic City closes on Monday next.

It is said that the chestnut crop will be large this fall.

Putting up store-time is sauntering along this way.

Now for the prophet who will foretell the coming winter.

Hamilton is the largest township in the county—35,754 acres.

The Board of Assessors met in the court-house on Monday.

Candell, the prison guard, will be under the circumstances.

The crops will emphasize the Thanksgiving proclamations this fall.

Mr. S. H. D. Hoffman returned to the Landing on Monday evening.

Fishing with a seine is now lawful, the season opened on Monday last.

Fires will soon feel quite comfortable in the mornings and evenings.

Mr. Wm. Mattox shot nine rail birds on Monday last, the first of the season.

Mr. Chas. G. Joslyn takes charge of the Weymouth school. A good selection.

The Woodstown fair will be held on Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

The population of the Landing is still on the increase, we are pleased to record.

The bridges in different parts of the county suffered severely in the late storm.

Total valuation of the taxable property in Atlantic county amounts to $43,313,332.

Godfrey Crowell, of Hamilton, will teach in Port Republic the coming winter.

The American Hotel, Wm. Veal, land, has been re-peppered and otherwise improved.

Nath Mattox received a lot of new goods this week which he will sell cheap for cash.

Annas Bowen will be Captain of the life saving crew at the Atlantic City station this winter.

A large bell for the new school house at English Creek passed through this place a few days ago.

Quite a number of persons from the Landing attended the Seaville camp meeting on Sunday last.

A slight sprinkling of salt on the lawn is beneficial. Don't use too much or you will kill the grass.

The total pork tax amounts to $2,590; state tax, $2,080; school tax, $8,356; county tax, $21,600.

The mosquitoes have been terrific for the past week. "Nothing ever seen like it," says the old inhabitant.

Mr. Ben Peck has been selected as the teacher at Buena Vista and will leave for his post of duty on Monday next.

Howard Izard and Frank Moore left this week for Bridgeton to resume their studies at the South Jersey Institute.

Hamilton was the only township which presented a duplicate on Monday with an increased valuation over last year—$20,000.

John Peck, who has had several carriages in Atlantic City during the season, returned to the Landing in the beginning of the week.

We understand our public school will open on Monday next, with Mr. C. E. Moore as principal and Miss Agnes Mathews as assistant.

Ducks are unusually scarce. They are probably still in the swamps, living on hickberries. We have heard of only two or three being shot.

A son of Mr. Jacob Campbell has secured permanent position in the store at Weymouth, owing to the retirement of Mr. Andrew G. Stewart.

The Times reports that Dr. George M. Harris, who removed to Atlantic City from Port Republic in the spring, has drifted into an excellent practice.

G. W. Walker, who died in Waterford a short time ago, owned a favorite dog, which since the funeral has been at his master's grave and refuses to leave it.

The effort of the choir of the Methodist church on Sunday morning last was very highly spoken of by many of the visitors in the Landing who were present.

Almost time for the political pot to begin to boil. Only one office to be filled this fall, however, that of Representative. Next year will prove to be a red-hot one, though.

Mr. Andrew G. Stewart, who has so long been connected with the store in Weymouth, has taken the position of book-keeper of the works at that place, just vacated by Mr. M. R. Moore.

Miss Mary B. France, a daughter of Rev. F. B. France, has left for Belkwood Seminary, situated about twelve miles from Louisville, Kentucky. Miss B. is employed there as a music teacher.

The Anne-Stacy, who has been on a short tour to Cape May, returned last night, and will probably stay at the hotel, but the chances are that she will return to the hotel.

John T. Wright, president of the Philadelphia County, was in the city on Tuesday evening, and remained at the Hotel Hamilton, and on Wednesday morning left for the city on Wednesday morning.

Although the money has been appropriated some time, absolutely nothing has been done towards improving the public school grounds, and we suppose nothing will be.

Whenever you hear any one—man or woman—with a good deal to say about this paper, you can safely bet they are not subscribers, but they manage to read it weekly by borrowing from their neighbors.

The Atlantic City Assessor on Monday presented his duplicate to the Board of Assessors with an assessed valuation of $110,000 less than last year and the Board, not being satisfied, gave him $100,000 additional.

An old man by the name of O'Connell has been tramping around town this week, headstuck with a hat, and a relative living at or near Beasley's Point, if so, they should take care of him and furnish him a proper support.

D. E. Izard, esq., our efficient County Collector, was selected by the Board of Assessors on Monday as their clerk, and as a consequence the work of the Board was completed in one day, where heretofore the work always required a two-days' session.

Capt. E. H. Hudson, the mail carrier, between the Landing and Philadelphia, will always be found at the depot on the arrival of trains, and is prepared to convey passengers to Tuckahoe, or anywhere else within a radius of twenty miles. Terms reasonable.

Rev. Mr. Thompson, of Ellwood, occupied the Methodist pulpit last Sunday morning and Rev. Mr. Mayhew in the evening, as the pastor, Mr. Stokes was absent at the Seaville camp meeting.

Mr. J. H. Gifford, a new Gordon job press, and was prepared to do job printing of all kinds, including billboards, letterheads, envelopes and blanks of all kinds. Send in your orders.

We would call the attention of the Overseer, Mr. Fred N. Moore, to the rank weeds growing up on each side of the road through town, particularly in front of the Frazier property and also in front of the Groves. They are getting to be an eyesore.

Misses Kate Gifford, Laura Duns and Mollie Hudson intend leaving on Monday next for Pennington Seminary. It is recalled that Miss Mollie graduated from June and her object in going back is to take an advanced course of study.

A change has been rendered necessary in regard to the proposed press excursion to Egg Harbor City. It will go over the Narrows Gauge and Thursday, the 11th inst., has been fixed upon as the time.

Mr. Robert Bing is at present in Bridgeton where he is engaged in putting in one of his turban wheels in the East Lake Woolen mills. The wheel is a large one, some twenty feet, and was shipped by rail from this place on Tuesday.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation from the Committee of Arrangements to visit and inspect the display of fruits and farm products in the town of Hamilton on Wednesday last, and should have been pleased to have participated had not the storm prevented.

A young woman, giving the name of Ida Gale, hailing from Philadelphia, who was locked up at Atlantic City for some minor offense last week, attempted to commit suicide on Friday, taking laudanum, but was discovered in time to save her life.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet this (Saturday) evening at the residence of Mr. Solomon Deviney. The reason for holding it this evening instead of Monday evening next, the regular time, is that several who are on the programme could not be present on that evening.

John Shinn, John Smith and Daniel Peck, all charged with violating the law, in using a seine out of season, were discharged from the county jail on Tuesday, by order of Judge Rice, owing to their having no money to pay their fine. Thomas Peck and Elmer Strickland are the only two fishermen yet remaining in prison.

Wm. Ramsey, the night watchman at the cotton mill has lost a valuable watchdog—his companion at night. It is supposed some one stole him. He went to Atlantic City on Monday to see a dog he heard of but did not prove to be his. The dog is black and white spotted—known as the English Coach species.

The Trustees of the Presbyterian church were after us last week for stating that they were having their handsome new fence, enclosing the cemetery, whitewashed, when it is being painted in two colors. It is true, there is considerable difference and the statement is a misstatement, and we consider it our duty to set the record straight.

Capt. Clapp, who made the last trip for Capt. Shepley in the bark Jennie, reported on his arrival in Philadelphia from Boston the drawing of Frederick Reed, second mate, and a crew of four. He was lost overboard on the night of Aug. 26, lowered the boat and made every exertion to save him, but without avail.

The Egg Harbor Democrat says the new county jail progresses very slowly. We think the editor will be surprised to see it so far advanced when he visits the Landing next week. The jailor's residence is just about receiving the finishing touches, and the jail proper would be much further advanced had the material been promptly delivered on time. Considering the weather we had in August, we think that Mr. Strickland is to be congratulated on the advanced stage of the improvement.

The Board of Assessors of this county consist of the following gentlemen: Abner, John T. Cordery; Atlantic City, Arthur Westcott; Buena Vista, Philip E. Mull; Egg Harbor City, Ferd. Myler; Egg Harbor township, Joseph H. English; Galloway, Alfred Somers; Hamilton, Chas. T. Abbott; Haverhill, Wm. P. Brown; Mullica, Walter Miller; Weymouth, Geo. Johnson; Galloway township, John H. Brown, of Hamilton, as chairman.

The new brown stone depot in Camden at the Ninth street crossing of the Pennsylvania and Camden and Atlantic railroads is nearly completed and presents a fine appearance. It is intended to make it a principal office for both roads, as it has been found that a large portion of the people of Camden prefer that locality to the offices at Cooper's Point and the foot of Federal street.

Agnes Horn was sent to the county jail on Tuesday by Justice Kram on complaint of Overseer Wm. H. Moore. Geo. Johnson, of Galloway township, is expected to be released from the county jail on Wednesday.

Mr. J. H. Gifford, a new Gordon job press, and was prepared to do job printing of all kinds, including billboards, letterheads, envelopes and blanks of all kinds. Send in your orders.
