Egg Harbor City, N. J.

The product of above vineyards consists of pure brands of the celebrated "Egg Harbor Wines." For domestic use and sick room, they are fast taking place of all others. Attention is directed to our speciality, which consists of the sweet juice of the grape being kept in the condition as it leaves the press, by entirely preventing the usual fermentation, thus obtaining a permanent.

"MUST."

For this roduct we retain the original name For this 'roduct we retain the original name of unfermented grape fulce, as it is not a "wine" on account of possessing no spirituous of olcoholic properties. It is needless to speak of the delightfulness of this beverage, as all will readily perceive, that it is equivalent to consuming the delicious grape in liquid form. For invalidation as proven most exhiberating and highly beneficial to which numerous Physicians can testity. Temperance people can have no oblect testify. Temperance people can have no objection to the use of Must, and will certainly half it as a promoter of their cause. Churches are using it for accamental purposes in preference to the various foiled juices, as they begin to discover the positive keeping qualities of Must. The well known publishing house of Hubbard Bros. Philadelphia, have in preparation, and will soon issue the life of General Japes A. Garfield, written by his contrade in arms and personal friend, General J. S. Brisbin, of the regular army. The career of our distinguished regular army. The career of our distinguished condidate has rarely been equaled in poir, soft romantic interest, and the more closely studied the more wonder it and inspiring it appears at furnishes material for a volu, nor deep and perhapent interest and valde. We are glad that its prepara, on has been idaced inhands to competent. The brilliant qualities of General Brisbin, both as a gold mand an authorizer well knoss and his personal relations to General Garm are such as will livel to bis narrative the utimest fullness and authority of standent. It will be a book of these than passing interest, and in this traspect widely different from dedinary campaign literature. It will be sold only by subscription, and must meet with a very large sale.
