I, Daniel M. Zimmerman of Philadelphia do publish this as and for my last will and testament:--

I devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife Elizabeth, if she survives me, all my estate which I now have or hereafter may acquire, absolutely and in fee:--

If my wife does not survive me, I devise and bequeath unto my son Walter, if he survives me, all my estate which I now have or hereafter may acquire, absolutely and in fee:--

If my wife and son die before me, I devise and bequeath unto the children of my said son all my estate which I now have or hereafter may acquire, absolutely and in fee, share and share alike; but should my son die leaving surviving no children and no will, I then devise and bequeath unto his widow; and to the children of my deceased sister Mary A. Hoke; and to Sarah W. Lawshe, wife of C. W. Lawshe of Atlantic Georgia, share and share alike, all my estate which I now have or hereafter may acquire, absolutely and in fee:--

I appoint my wife, and, at her death, my son Walter Zimmerman, sole executrix and sole executor of my will. In witness whereof I have herewith put my hand this second day of June 1890.

Daniel M. Zimmerman

signed sealed published and declared by the above named Daniel M. Zimmerman to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who were present at the same time and subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the testator and of each other.
